THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Gospel: Luke 18: 9-14

Luke continues here his steady depiction of the unrighteous, as personified by the Pharisees. The tax collector "beats his breast" (a sign of repentance) and then utters a short prayer for mercy. Its beautiful words make for an Act of Contrition for all of us

ALL THE HOLY APOSTLES. The term 'Apostle' means 'one who is sent.' A 'Disciple' is one who 'follows a discipline or master.' As three of the Gospels note,

"[Jesus] called his disciples to himself, and from them he chose Twelve, whom he also named apostles: Simon, whom he named Peter, and his brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon who was called a Zealot, and Judas the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor." [Luke 6:13-16] However, this Votive Mass does NOT honor just 'The Twelve' as they were often called.

First, we do not honor Judas Iscariot, but neither has the Church condemned the one of whom Jesus said, "It would be better for that man if he had never been born." [Mark 14:21c] For there's no limit to Divine Mercy, so let's hope even Judas was, or will eventually be saved. And the Church honors at least 3 other men NOT numbered among 'The Twelve' as Apostles: Saint Paul and his companion Saint Barnabas, and Saint Matthias, who was elected to replace Judas. When Pope Francis elevated the Memorial of Saint Mary Magdalene to a Feast, he referred to her by her honorary title, 'The Apostle to the Apostles' since Jesus sent her to tell the Apostles about His Resurrection, which she saw first. Perhaps she will get that title in the new Orations and Preface being formulated for her Feast.

Collect - All The Holy Apostles

May your Church always exult, O Lord, in the honor given through the ages
to the blessed Apostles,
that she may be guided by these protectors,
in whose teaching and merits she finds joy.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ ... and ever. Amen.

ONE, HOLY, CATHOLIC & APOSTOLIC. The 4th mark of the Church: 'APOSTOLIC' means 3 things. One, the Church is 'built' on the witness and words of the Apostles. Two, with the help of the Holy Spirit who dwells within her, the Church - in every age - accepts what has been handed on to her - and faithfully hands on the tradition to the next generation. And three, through those who serve as the Apostles' successors, our Bishops, in union with our Supreme Pastor, the Pope, the successor of Saint Peter, assisted by Priests, she continues to be taught, sanctified, and guided by the Apostles until Christ's return.

Prayer over the Offerings - All The Holy Apostles

Pour out on us, Lord, your Holy Spirit, whom you poured in abundance upon the Apostles, that we may recognize what you have given us through them and duly offer the sacrifice of praise to your glory.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE SAME HOLY SPIRIT. All of the Ordination prayers - for a Deacon, Priest [Presbyter] and especially for a Bishop, who receives the fullness of the three levels of Holy Orders - make clear it is the same Holy Spirit, who first breathed upon the Apostles, that comes upon their successors. What great gifts, as this oration states, come to all of us through those Ordained to serve!

Prayer after Communion - All The Holy Apostles

Grant that we may persevere, O God,
with rejoicing and simplicity of heart
in the teaching of the Apostles,
in the breaking of the bread, and in the prayers.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE UNBROKEN EUCHARISTIC TRADITION. In the New Testament, after the four Gospels, in the Church's only biblical 'history' book, Acts, after recording the Lord's Ascension, there a fourth listing of the 'The Eleven' - after which they chose Judas' successor. [Saint John's Gospel has no list of 'The Twelve!'] Then we read these words: "[The Church] devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers." [Acts 1:13] While 'the prayers' have changed to become more Christ-centered [at first, they prayed in the Jewish Temple or synagogues, until they were 'ejected' from Judaism; then they met in what was called 'house churches'], we are basically still doing these same four things 2,000 years later: 1] studying apostolic teaching; 2] forming community; 3] breaking bread; and 4] praying! All Holy Apostles, pray for us.

In Christ,

Father Mark
