Collections are vital to our existence as a Parish. If your circumstances permit, please consider donating to the parish at this time. I am thankful and grateful for your continued financial support to help us meet our weekly and monthly expenses. Many mail their contributions in and continue to do so. Here are some ways for you to help your parish:

- Place your offering in the receptacles at the doors as you enter or leave church.*
- Mail in your envelopes weekly/monthly.*
- Have your bank send us weekly/monthly check automatically from your checking account made out to Saint Justin Church with your envelope number on the check to get proper credit. Thank you for giving the above some consideration to help support your parish financially, and know it is greatly appreciated! Fr. Mark*

Adult O.C.I.A. program: Contact Parish Office

Children O.C.I.A. program: Contact Religious Education

MARRIAGE: The Sacrament of Marriage requires a time of spiritual preparation. According to the Common Policy adopted by the Bishops of New Jersey, this preparation requires attendance at a marriage preparation program (Pre-Cana) as well as sessions with the parish deacon or priest. Therefore, couples should make arrangements at the Parish Office one year before the planned wedding date and before finalizing any social plans.

MISSION STATEMENT: The goal of Saint Justin the Martyr Parish is that each member grow in the Grace through Jesus Christ, and in so doing cooperate with the Holy Spirit in giving glory to God, in experiencing the salvation of their soul, and in building up the Body of Christ.

WHAT IS MY GIFT TO GOD?

Although the last day of this year's Christmastime is on Monday, the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, "it all comes down" after the last Mass this Sunday. Today we recall with great festivity the Magi's three highly symbolic gifts by which they proclaim that the Christ Child is a King [Gold], a Priest [Frankincense] and the Ultimate Sacrifice [Myrrh, the burial ointment]. However, the time for Gift Giving is never over!

One of my favorite Christmas Carols is 'In the Bleak Midwinter,' a song composed by Gustav Holst in 1906, based on a poem by the English poet Christina Rossetti, published in 1872. After its highly sentimental reflection on the reality of that first Christmas: cold, dank and scarce, without any creature comforts, it turns its attention to us. Like the Magi, the Shepherds, the Angels and the Virgin Mother, what we will offer the Christ Child? Here's the whole poem:

In the bleak mid-winter
Frosty wind made moan;
Earth stood hard as iron, Water like a stone;
Snow had fallen, snow on snow, Snow on snow,
In the bleak mid-winter Long ago.

Our God, heaven cannot hold Him
Nor earth sustain,
Heaven and earth shall flee away
When He comes to reign:

In the bleak mid-winter A stable-place sufficed
The Lord God Almighty - Jesus Christ.
Enough for Him, whom Cherubim
Worship night and day,
A breastful of milk And a mangerful of hay;
Enough for Him,
whom Angels Fall down before,
The ox and ass and camel Which adore.

Angels and Archangels
May have gathered there,
Cherubim and seraphim Thronged the air;
But only His Mother In her maiden bliss
Worshipped the Beloved With a kiss.

What can I give Him, Poor as I am?
If I were a Shepherd I would bring a lamb;
If I were a Wise Man I would do my part,

Yet what I can I give Him, Give my heart.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER. As we enter into the last phase of the USA's Bishops' three-year National Eucharistic Revival, we are all being challenged to more fully enter into the main ways Jesus now comes to us: through the Sacraments, especially the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. And since His Real Presence, His Most Sacred Body and Precious Blood, are consecrated and received during the holy Mass, and worshipped during Eucharistic Adoration, these two liturgical actions should take precedence over all others. Even a simple 'visit' to the Blessed Sacrament or making the Sign of the Cross as we pass by a church in which Christ is truly present in the Tabernacle, would be a great gift to the Lord.

So, too, would be putting more of ourselves into worship. First, of course, we need to be present in body: virtual is great for those truly unable to get to church, but it is not an equal substitute. We must also be present in mind: simply going through the motions just doesn't cut it! [Nor, must I say, it is helpful to us Priests; one of the causes of clergy-burnout is looking at the faces of those who frown, seem disinterested or bored, or who are non-participatory!] Most essential is being fully present in heart and soul. That truly inspires those who lead us in prayer, and those who worship alongside us. That truly makes the community come alive and encourages others to join us ... which is the ultimate gift to the Lord.

Conversely, once we give our heart to the Lord, the rest of us will more easily follow. Our minds will begin to think more in tune with the Lord. Our bodies will act more in tune with the Lord. We will be more willing to accept special ministries in the Parish, be they a catechetical, liturgical or social ministry. And that, in turn, will inspire more people to join us in worship and in ministry. So, in answer to the poem's question, "What can I give Him, poor as I am?" are we willing to say, I "give my heart" as well as my mind and body, my treasures and possessions, my hopes and dreams, my present and future?

May this New Year of Grace, 2024, be a time of renewal and recommitment to the Eucharist, the holy Mass and the other Sacraments.

In Christ,

Father Mark

Diocesan History

The Diocese of Trenton is 142 years old. In 1881, Pope Leo XII established the Diocese of Trenton to serve the Catholics in the southern part of New Jersey and named Father Michael J. Farrell of New York as its first bishop.

At the time, the Diocese had 68 churches, 23 parochial schools and 51 priests spread out across our present four counties of Ocean, Monmouth, Mercer and Burlington counties as well as the territories which are now part of the Camden and Metuchen Dioceses which split from the Trenton Diocese as the Catholic population soared.

For more on the history of the Diocese of Trenton go to: dioceseoftrenton.org/our-history.

HAPPY NEW YEAR AND THANK YOU!

Tomorrow the Christmas season comes to an end and we are in the beginning of a new calendar year. A new year is an opportunity to thank God for the blessings of the past year and to ask His continued blessings on us and our loved ones in the coming year.

I, personally, have much to be grateful for this past year. Echoing St. Paul (Romans 1:8), I give thanks to God for all of you and all who have touched my life this past year.

It is always difficult to know where to start; so let me thank all of you for your prayers, notes, gifts, baked goods and kindness to me and to our parish. I am blessed to be pastor here at St. Justin the Martyr Parish. Your faith has been a source of encouragement and amazement.

I am grateful for all those who share their time, talent and treasure to make our parish a special place.

To all those who helped in any way with the Christmas Liturgies. To all those who helped decorate the church so beautifully. We truly appreciate the generosity of all those in the different ministries who helped to enhance our Christmas celebrations, not only at Christmas but throughout the year.

Thanks to all those who contributed to our Christmas collection and the financial support of the parish, thus allowing us to meet the expenses connected with our mission as a parish community.

Thanks to all for the beautiful and thoughtful cards and gifts to me and the staff this Christmas Season.

Having hip-replacement surgery and being away from the parish was difficult for me this year. I am grateful to our deacons and staff for making sure the parish ran smoothly in my absence. A special thank you to Father Bob Laferrera and the visiting priests who covered our Masses and funerals. They made sure you had the greatest gift—the gift of Jesus in Holy Communion.

I am grateful to the surgeon who operated on me and all the nurses and staff of Community Medical Center. They were all outstanding. Two of the nurses are members of our parish, I will not mention their names, but they and all their colleagues were wonderful. We are all grateful for those in the medical and health care professions. I would be remiss if I did not thank the physical therapists also.

I pray that the New Year will be a source of lasting good will and that Jesus Who is always present among us will continue to guide you through each day. Please know that you are in my prayers and thoughts with deep gratitude. I wish all the best for you and your families. Thank you for inviting me into your life. I consider it a privilege to have you as part of mine.

Merry Christmas! Happy New Year! May God bless you and your loved ones.

Love and prayers,

Father Mark
