EPIPHANY AND THE EUCHARIST. As you may know, we have devoted our bulletin article column to the USA Bishops'

National Eucharistic Revival document The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church. This 3

-year revival should help us better understand and celebrate our Lord's Real Presence in the Eucharist. This is part 22 in the series; for past articles and our Bishop's series on the Eucharist, go to our parish website - stjustin.org.

ARTISTIC LICENSE. Unlike photographs, which are exact images of its subject [unless it is altered or 'photoshopped'], artists who claim 'artistic license' enhance their works to emphasize its deeper meaning; or they alter their works to better tell the whole story. We see an example of this [above] in the 16th Century, Netherlandish artist, Hieronymus Bosch's [1450-1516] oil painting, which is in the Philadelphia Museum of Art, entitled 'The Adoration of the Magi.' Let's look at what his 'artistic license' depicts.

The central image of his work is a wooden table, over which our Blessed Mother holds the Christ Child as He reaches for one of the Magi's gifts. Saint Joseph, standing in the background, reverently removes his cap to welcome his splendidly clad visitors, or scratches his head, perplexed by the mystery taking place before his very eyes. Two shy but curious shepherds peer over the shed's back wall, as an ox, the animal used in religious sacrifice, and an ass, look on from the other side. Sadly, the image on the King's beige and gold cape is not discernable in this poor copy of the painting; it depicts the Israelites gathering the manna or bread from heaven that rained down for them during their 40-year desert journey to the Promised Land. We find other Eucharistic themes in this painting.

As we sing in the beloved Christmas carol, 'We Three Kings,' the three gifts give us a clue to the Christ Child's identity and role. Gold, the gift fit for a king, highlights His eternal kingship over the universe. Frankincense highlights His role as the Eternal High Priest who offered the greatest Sacrifice of all: Himself. Myrrh, the burial ointment, foretells His crucifixion and death for our salvation. In the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, Christ is truly present so that we can receive Him at the Altar or Table of the Lord. For as we sing in the last verse of that carol: "Glorious now, behold Him arise, King and God and Sacrifice!"

Even the Magi's question, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." [Matthew 2:2] has Eucharistic overtones. For as the saying goes, 'Wise men [and women] still seek Him.' And where will we find Him? "Not," as we sing in 'Once in David's Royal City,' "in that poor lowly stable, With the oxen standing by." We can find Him in every place He said He would be: in the poor and needy, the sick and dying; in His holy word; in those who gather in His holy Name; those joined in Sacramental Matrimony and the Ordained; and, above all, in the Breaking of the Bread: His Real Presence in the Eucharist.

However, once we find Him, and even more so, once we receive Him in the Eucharist, we must heed the angel's warning to the Magi: "They departed for their country by another way." [Matthew 2:12] Our lives cannot be the same once we come in contact with - or consume - the Christ to whom the Magi were led by a 'star' - and others by the prophecies of old as detailed by the chief priests and scribes. These roles - of the 'star' and of the chief priest and scribes' - are now done by the Church and her teachings, her leaders and their ministry. And one major way she offers us the directions that can lead us to Jesus is through the holy Mass. Again, we are obligated to participate in Saturday evening or Sunday Mass to get that weekly dose of grace.

The revised Order of Penance, which governs Confession, is optional as of February 22, 2023 [Ash Wednesday] but mandatory after April 16, 2023 [Divine Mercy Sunday]. So, we will devote articles for the next few weeks to this revision. May the graces of this Christmastime continue to grow within us!

In Christ,

Father Mark

Healing the Wounds of Abortion

The psychological and spiritual wounds of abortion can be sharp, deep and crippling. You may feel a deep numbness and may not be able to name the pain or recognize any of the symptoms. It can also have a devastating impact on the father or grandparents of the aborted child and friend/s of the mother. You do not have to continue to hide in shame and fear.

Rachel's Vineyard's Retreat is a chance to focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive non-judgmental process, in an atmosphere of confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. It is designed to help both women and men experience the mercy and compassion of God.

If you have suffered through an abortion and have isolated yourself from healing and forgiveness, you might consider attending one our retreat weekends. For more information, contact Judy Warenkiewicz at 732-536-6871. All inquiries are strictly confidential.

Pope Benedict XVI
1927–2022

FOR A POPE. After the last papal funeral, for Pope Saint John Paul II - at which the then-Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger, soon to be Pope Benedict XVI, was the main celebrant, on April 8, 2005, almost 18 years ago - and after the Funeral for Pope John Paul I [October 4, 1978] and Pope Saint Paul VI [August 12, 1978] - some noted how the requiem rites offered for Supreme Pontiffs were basically what every Catholic gets. This is also true for the rites offered for Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, pictured above, on April 20, 2008, in NYC. For as God's children, all are equally loved by the Father, redeemed by the Son, and gifted by the Holy Spirit. So, we all get the same basic 'send-off' - although a Pope usually gets far more attendees!

After blessing the hallowed Ground Zero site with holy water and lighting a candle, he prayed: "God of peace ... turn to your way of love those whose hearts and minds are consumed with hatred ... Grant that those whose lives were spared may live so that the lives lost here may not have been lost in vain. Comfort and console us, strengthen us in hope, and give us the wisdom and courage to work tirelessly for a world where true peace and love reign among nations and in the hearts of all." It is now our turn to pray for the Holy Father who died on December 31, 2022; please do so by offering these orations.

Collect - For a Pope - A

O God, faithful rewarder of souls,
grant that your departed servant Pope Benedict, whom you made successor of Peter and shepherd of your Church, may happily enjoy for ever in your presence in heaven
the mysteries of your grace and compassion which he faithfully ministered on earth.
Through our Lord Jesus ... for ever and ever. Amen.

MAY HE RECEIVE WHAT HE GAVE. Whether we shepherd a Family as a Parent or Grandparent, a Parish as a Priest, a Diocese as a Bishop, or a Pope as the Church's Supreme Pastor, we hope to receive from God in heaven what we tried to give to others while on earth. As worldwide leaders, Popes and others receive tons of prayers ... and tons of criticism, some of it cruel and downright nasty. May our prayers for Pope Benedict drown out anything negatively said against him. And may others pray for us when we stand before the Lord for judgment so that our sins may be blotted out by a sea of love.

Prayer over the Offerings - For the Pope - A

We pray, O Lord, that through these devoted offices of supplication you may mercifully bestow a blessed reward on the soul of your servant, Pope Benedict, and on us, your gifts of grace.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

WE APPLY CHRIST'S 'ONCE-FOR-ALL' SACRIFICE

TO ALL PEOPLE OF ALL TIMES. Christ's eternal self-sacrifice to atone for our sins is truly the greatest of gifts that keeps on giving. When we offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, each participant applies the graces won for us to their intentions. So, what the Priest prays at the start of The Liturgy of the Eucharist now more properly says, "Pray ... that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable ...". When the above oration is prayed at a Holy Father's Funeral or Memorial Mass, the deceased Pontiff is graced - as are those who join in offering this prayer.

Prayer after Communion - For a Pope - A

Renewed by the Sacrament of our communion with you, our God, we pray,
O Lord, that your servant Pope Benedict, who served by your will on earth as the visible foundation of your Church's unity,
may be happily admitted to your blessed flock.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

WE RETURN THE FAVOR. In the Bible, the most common image of a leader may be of a shepherd who guards his flock. To today's 'flock,' a better analogy may be Anti-Virus Software, which warns of potential dangers and blocks anything harmful or hazardous to our computer's health. And although he knows only a minute percentage of his flock by name, a Pope prays for each sheep in the fold. By praying for Popes, living or deceased, we return the favor! May Pope Benedict rest in peace. He was truly a man of God and a great teacher of the faith!

In Christ,

Father Mark
