Here are some ways for you to help your parish:*

- Place your offering in the receptacles at the doors as you enter or leave church.
- Mail in your envelopes weekly/monthly.
- Have your bank send us weekly/monthly check automatically from your checking account made out to Saint Justin Church with your envelope number on the check to get proper credit. Thank you for giving the above some consideration to help support your parish financially, and know it is greatly appreciated!

Therefore, couples should make arrangements at the Parish Office one year before the planned wedding date and before finalizing any social plans.
MISSION STATEMENT: The goal of Saint Justin the Martyr Parish is that each member grow in the Grace through Jesus Christ, and in so doing cooperate with the Holy Spirit in giving glory to God, in experiencing the salvation of their soul, and in building up the Body of Christ.

BAPTISMAL FONTS. As we said in previous articles on this Jubilee Year [which are available on our parish website], the Holy Father did NOT suggest each holy site create its own Holy Door as many did in the Jubilee Year 2000. Instead, he asked us to reflect on the ultimate Holy Door which every Catholic Church already has: the Baptismal Font. As the gateway to all the other Sacraments, the portal to heaven, the pool at which all sins are forgiven and washed away [its the Confessional after Baptism], the proper place where we join the Common Priesthood of Jesus Christ as coworkers in His mission, the Baptismal Font and the Rite that occurs there which makes us God's children by adoption, deserve our awe and reverence.

All that is just some of what the Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1212-1284, says about the first of the three Sacraments of Initiation. After Baptism, our 'new life in Christ' is strengthened in Confirmation and nourished by Christ's Body and Blood when we worthily receive Eucharist. It is reinforced by the Rite of Sprinkling, which we did in place of the usual Penitential Act at Masses this weekend. And we personally recall it each time we enter church, dip our finger[s] into a holy water stoop, and make the Sign of the Cross.

WHY WERE ANCIENT BAPTISMAL FONTS 8-SIDED OR OCTAGONAL? All four Gospels offer various details about most events, but they all agree on the day and timeframe of the Lord's Resurrection: the first day of the week, around sunrise. Here is what each Evangelist says: "After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb." [Matthew 28:1] - "Very early when the sun had risen, on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb." [Mark 14:1] - "But at daybreak on the first day of the week they took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb." [Luke 24:1] - "On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb." [John 20:1]

To understand the significance of this, we go back to the first pages of the Bible. The Book of Genesis says God created the world in seven days: God 'worked' for six days and rested on the seventh day, which became the Sabbath Day. The Sabbath Day of rest, a day reserved for religious rites, was enshrined in the 3rd

Commandment: "Remember the sabbath day - keep it holy." [Exodus 20:8] So, when Christ rose from the dead on the day after the Sabbath, or the first day of the week, it was seen as onset of a NEW CREATION - and Sunday quickly became the day Christians celebrated the Resurrection and fulfilled the command to take time on the Sabbath Day for God and celebrate their Faith.

The Church based her 'alteration' of the Sabbath Day on, among other things, these words of the Apostle Paul: "Let no one, then, pass judgment on you in matters of food and drink or with regard to a festival or new moon or sabbath. These are shadows of things to come; the reality belongs to Christ." [Colossians 2:16-17] As she grew in her own self-understanding, the Church made changes to reflect the new reality. An eight-sided or octagonal Baptismal Font reflects this entrance into the new and final phase of God's Creation. To this day, Seventh-day Adventists, a sect formed in the mid 1800's, reject this change; they worship on the Jewish Sabbath Day which runs from Friday's sunset to Saturday sunset.

Here is how the Holy Father explains it in the Papal Bull 'Spes Non Confundid' - 'Hope does not disappoint' in which he declared 2025 a Jubilee Year: "Baptism is the dawn of the 'eighth day,' the day of the resurrection, a day that transcends the normal, weekly passage of time, opening it to the dimension of eternity and to life everlasting: the goal to which we tend on our earthly pilgrimage" [#20] These are the thoughts we should reflect on whenever we use holy water to bless ourselves from a Baptismal Font or Holy Water Stoop, or when the Rite of Sprinkling is used. We will keep our custom of reserving the Rite of Sprinkling for Eastertime, whenever there are Baptisms at Mass, days like today, and Candlemas or the Presentation of the Lord, February 2, which falls on a Sunday this year.

Do you know the date and place of your Baptism? The names of your Sponsors or Godparents and the Cleric who baptized you?

In Christ,

Father Mark
