 arrangements at the Parish Office one year before the planned wedding date and before finalizing any social plans.

WHAT'S A SYNOD?

Hopefully, you have heard that Pope Francis has called for a 'Synod on Synodality.'

Before explaining what a 'Synod' is, here's how to pronounce some uncommon words. 'Synod,' - pronounced 'SIN - ed' - 'synodality:' 'sin - ed - al - it - tee' and 'synodal:' 'sin - ODE - al' - are 'churchy' terms from the Greek word 'synod' which means 'journey' or 'way.' Christianity was initially called 'The Way' based on Jesus' invitation to potential disciples: "Come, and you will see." [John 1:39], whereupon they became His followers; and as they 'journeyed' with Him, they learned 'the way.'

But as the two disciples who walked and conversed with the Risen Lord on 'the way' to Emmaus that first Easter learned, their eyes and minds and hearts - and ours - can only be fully opened to Christ's presence when we 'break bread' or share Eucharist with Jesus and each other. A 'synod' is a specific way to walk with - and listen to - God and to one another. Now, some thoughts on what a 'synod' is not!

Some want the Church to be a democracy where the majority rules, or a monarchy with a Pope who dictates every rule and rubric; but that's NOT the Church founded by Jesus on the Apostle Peter's confession of faith. So, a 'synod' is NOT like a political convention, where a platform is formed, powerbrokers vie to promote their own personal agendas, and a leader who, choosing his or her own team, runs the show. While Bishops have somewhat total jurisdiction over their own Diocese, they cannot enact anything contrary to Universal Church [Canon] Law, and must always act in union with the Successor of Peter, the Pope, who is 'first among equals.' Together, the College of Bishops, with the Pope, keep safe the 'Deposit of Faith' entrusted by Christ to the Apostles.

A 'Synod on Synodality' seeks to establish, renew and strengthen our understanding of - and our ability to do - what we pray in Eucharistic Prayer I or the Roman Canon: "holding to the truth, [we must accurately] hand on the catholic and apostolic faith." [The bracketed words are my addition.] And the chief ways we do this is by reading and reflecting on God's revealed word in Sacred Scripture and the Church's Tradition. 'Tradition' with a capital 'T' means her 2,000 year 'piecing together' of the inspired biblical doctrines and dogmas with the ever changing challenges and situations in every age. Since, as the Church professes, there can be no new revelation once the Apostles, the first Bishops, died, we can only adapt ourselves to what has been already revealed - not the other way around.

To help us in the monumental task of handing on what we have received, we must rely on the gifts of the Holy Spirit. All are asked to regularly pray the same oration offered at the start of every session of the 1962-1965 Second Vatican Council. Its Latin title, Adsumus, Sancte Spiritus, comes from the first words of the prayer; most Latin Church documents are named that way; it is attributed to Saint Isidore of Seville [560-636; Feast Day: April 4]. Throughout the rest of the year, we will offer reflections on the 'Synod on Synodality' and directions on how you can be a part of this historic, spiritually enriching activity.

Adsumus, Sancte Spiritus

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

On our diocesan website - dioceseoftrenton.org - you can find information on how to view the official Vatican Synod website, dates, and registration for local Listening Sessions, etc. And remember to get your information from bonafide Catholic sources, not the often biased and erroneous secular media.

In Christ,

Father Mark

Journeying Together through the Synod

Hopefully, you have been thinking about your own experience of journeying with the Church. We can learn so much when we reflect on our own story of faith and listen to the story of others.

These conversations can be a time of grace! And we believe the Lord Jesus who promised, "For where two or more are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them." Matthew 18:20

The Synod is not an invitation to debate Church teachings.

The Synod is not a time or place to create conflict or chastise the "other." Pope Francis calls us to step away from the caustic battles of 21st century conversations; and instead to share part of our own story, listen with care to one another, and build understanding and insight.

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.
