Weekly Offerings

Collections are vital to our existence as a Parish. If your circumstances permit, please consider donating to the parish at this time. I am thankful and grateful for your continued financial support to help us meet our weekly and monthly expenses. Many mail their contributions in and continue to do so. Here are some ways for you to help your parish:  Place your offering in the receptacles at the doors as you enter or leave church.  Mail in your envelopes weekly/monthly.  Have your bank send us weekly/monthly check automatically from your checking account made out to Saint Justin Church with your envelope number on the check to get proper credit. Thank you for giving the above some consideration to help support your parish financially, and know it is greatly appreciated! Fr. Mark

BAPTISM: Parents are required to attend a Baptism Preparation Session. Godparents/Sponsors are invited and strongly encouraged to attend. Please call the Parish Office as early as possible to make arrangements.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION: Confession will be Saturdays from 3:30pm to 4:00pm. Outside the door of the church on the side of the Religious Education Building. Kindly knock on the door, remain outside for Confession. Please arrive at 3:30.

Adult O.C.I.A. program: Contact Parish Office
Children O.C.I.A. program: Contact Religious Education

MARRIAGE: The Sacrament of Marriage requires a time of spiritual preparation. According to the Common Policy adopted by the Bishops of New Jersey, this preparation requires attendance at a marriage preparation program (Pre-Cana) as well as sessions with the parish deacon or priest. Therefore, couples should make arrangements at the Parish Office one year before the planned wedding date and before finalizing any social plans.

MISSION STATEMENT: The goal of Saint Justin the Martyr Parish is that each member grow in the Grace through Jesus Christ, and in so doing cooperate with the Holy Spirit in giving glory to God, in experiencing the salvation of their soul, and in building up the Body of Christ.

ST. THOMAS AQUINAS &
THE EUCHARIST.

Although we do not celebrate Saint Thomas Aquinas' Feast Day this year since its on a Sunday and we are not named in honor of him, we are in the three-year National Eucharistic Revival - and Saint Thomas Aquinas' - nicknamed the 'Angelic Doctor' because of his purity and intelligence - wrote volumes about the Eucharist. He also composed many Eucharistic Adoration hymns and the texts for the holy Mass offered on 'Corpus Christi' or 'The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.' First, let's put it all in context.

Saint Thomas Aquinas' [1225-1274] times were very similar to our own: the Church's liturgical and sacramental life was in sad shape. In 1215, the 4th Lateran Council promulgated 'The Easter Duty,' requiring Catholics to receive Holy Communion [between the 1st Sunday of Lent and Trinity Sunday] and to confess their sins at least once a year. To help us better understand and celebrate the Eucharist, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ [Corpus Christi] was added to the liturgical calendar, and Aquinas composed the orations for that holy Mass which we still use to this day! He also composed numerous Eucharistic Adoration hymns like: 'Pange Lingua' ['Sing My Tongue'] - 'Panis Angelicus' ['Bread of Angels'] - Tantum Ergo' ['Therefore so great'] - and 'O Salutaris Hostia' ['O Saving Victim' or 'O Saving Sacrifice'], which will be the basis of next week's reflection.

GREAT DEVOTION TO THE EUCHARIST. As a young cleric, the 'Eucharistic Doctor' [the title given him by Pope Pius XI] would 'sneak' out of his cell [a violation of the 'Monastic Rule!'] to pray before the Blessed Sacrament. As a Priest, he began his day - even before offering holy Mass, by 'making a visit' to Christ truly present in the Tabernacle. He would often attend Masses celebrated by other Priests so he could adore the Blessed Sacrament. He not only profoundly explained, philosophically and theologically, the 'Real Presence,' he 'coined' the term for the mystery by which it occurs: 'Transubstantiation.'

On his deathbed, when Viaticum was brought to him, he exclaimed with great emotion: "Lord ... hast Thou come to visit me?"!

A COMMON MISCONCEPTION. In the 1500's, Protestant Reformers began to question and even deny Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist. To explain their erroneous position, they cited the hymns and terminology Saint Thomas composed as 'proof' that the Catholic Church's belief in the 'Real Presence' was a recent development. While it is true that, due to a lack of catechesis or proper faith formation, the growth of academic centers, urbanized cities and the like, Aquinas was able to give new emphasis and formal explanations of the Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist. However, the Church has ALWAYS believed in Christ's Real Presence. Here are some facts:

In the centuries before Aquinas, the Eucharistic Real Presence was gradually more formalized and emphasized. In 431, the Council of Ephesus [431] declared that the Eucharist is "truly the life-giving and very flesh of the Word himself." Saint Augustine of Hippo [354-430] wrote: "What you see is the bread and the chalice; that is what your own eyes report to you. But what your faith obliges you to accept is that the bread is the body of Christ and the chalice is the blood of Christ." Saint Cyril of Jerusalem [313-386] instructed communicants to make a throne with their hands to receive the Lord of Life.

In 151, (our parish patron) Saint Justin Martyr wrote: "For not as common bread nor common drink do we receive these ... for by the Eucharistic Prayer ... [they become] the flesh and the blood of that incarnated Jesus." Saints Hippolytus [170-235], Irenaeus [130-202], Ignatius of Antioch [died: 110] also wrote of Christ's Real Eucharistic Presence. And Jesus was perfectly clear: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." [John 6:51] Jesus even let those who scoffed at His Real Presence in the Eucharist walk away!

Next week we will reflect on the Eucharistic Hymns mentioned above that were composed by Saint Thomas Aquinas. As a Eucharistic Adoration oration says: "May our worship of this sacrament of Your body and blood help us to experience the salvation You won for us and the peace of the kingdom." Amen.

Healing the Wounds of Abortion

The psychological and spiritual wounds of abortion can be sharp, deep and crippling. You may feel a deep numbness and may not be able to name the pain or recognize any of the symptoms. It can also have a devastating impact on the father or grandparents of the aborted child and friend/s of the mother. You do not have to continue to hide in shame and fear. Rachel’s Vineyard’s Retreat is a chance to focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive non-judgmental process, in an atmosphere of confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. It is designed to help both women and men experience the mercy and compassion of God.

If you have suffered through an abortion and have isolated yourself from healing and forgiveness, you might consider attending one of our retreat weekends. For more information, contact

Judy Warkiewicz at 732-536-6871.

Exorcisms: What Catholics Need to Know | Chris Stefanick Show

Scripture says, “Be sober and alert. Your opponent the devil is prowling like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. Resist him, solid in your faith.” In other words, the Christian life involves spiritual combat. But a lot of Catholics aren’t really familiar with this idea. So to start unpacking it, we’re talking to Fr. Chad Ripperger, an exorcist priest.

Timothy E. Ryan Home for Funerals

Peace of Mind and Heart
before, during and beyond

The Timothy E. Ryan Funeral Homes are places of compassion, caring and understanding.

A funeral service at a Timothy E. Ryan Funeral Home is one that addresses your concerns, meets all of your needs and expectations and does so within the warmth and protection of my family.
