WHAT IS THE SYNOD'S PROCESS?

As mentioned in the first article on the Synod on Synodality [see 01/16/2022's bulletin], it is tempting to liken a Church Synod to a civil convocation or political forum. However, that is not the kind of Church her Founder, Jesus Christ, called her to be! We know from the Gospels that for about three years, the Apostles, our first Bishops, along with numerous disciples, 'walked the way' together. On this journey, they came to better understand - and live by - the ideals and goals set by the Lord Jesus for His Church. After praying the oration prescribed for this faith-based activity, we will review some of this Synod's intentions and its proposed process.

Adsumus, Sancte Spiritus

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever.

Amen.

THREE KEY 'SYNOD' TERMS. There are three dimensions of this Synod; while they are very interrelated, each has its own distinct purpose. Like a three-legged stool, the three 'pillars' of this Synod need each other to be able to properly and securely stand firm. These three dimensions are: Communion, Participation, and Mission. Let's look at each dimension individually.

COMMUNION. Each member of God's Church shares in countless forms of 'communion.' By Baptism and Confirmation, we share in communion with every member of Christ's Body, His Church, and are united in His Spirit. The most profound expression of this communion is, of course, our reception of Holy Communion. We say those who break faith with the Church in grave or serious ways are 'excommunicated.' We also share communion with God and each other as we hear and, hopefully, strive to heed, the same word of God. And in our common expressions of faith: kneeling, bowing, standing, as one; keeping common fast days and customs; coming together weekly to our common 'home,' the parish, we give witness to the world that we are in communion with God and one another.

PARTICIPATION. As members of one Body, all are called to do something, lest the body not function properly. There can be no 'wallflower Christians.' For as Saint Paul reminds us: "Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."

[1 Corinthians 12:27]. As the Apostle also explains in that Letter, while each member has a different duty or task, all must work together to make the body function properly. And one of the things the Synod process hopes to enhance is our dire need to LISTEN to God and to one another. For as we all know, poor communication, or a lack thereof, usually creates chaos. While we see this problem plaguing our political world, it has also infected our Church. So, the Synod rightly reminds us to LISTEN to GOD and to EACH OTHER as we ACTIVELY do whatever the Lord has called each one of us to do in His Church. And just as it does not bode well for our Country when fewer and fewer exercise their right to vote, our Church suffers unless everyone plays their proper part.

MISSION. The Risen Lord clearly stated our mission: "Go ... and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them ... teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." [Matthew 28:19-20]. Our Lord's command was NOT 'ME-centered' but geared toward reaching out to others, modelling Gospel values and biblical ideals to them, warmly inviting them to join us. Jesus also once said, "Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give." [Ibid, 10:8]. So, we owe it to those who taught us the Faith to teach it to others; our Synod mission is to share with everyone we can the Gift of our Faith.

In Christ,

Father Mark

FRAUD ALERT

A few parishioners have recently received a text 'from me' asking for help. It was addressed to their first name and signed Rev. Mark Kreder. The text simply asked the person to help me with a favor. They were asked to purchase a gift card, scratch off and send the code back to the texter. Neither I, nor Father Bob, nor our Deacons or anyone on parish staff, would ask for help in either of these ways. If in doubt of an email or text from me or any staff member, do not reply to the message and please notify the parish office that you received such a message. Responding to these phishing messages only validates your information to the scammer. Please know this has been reported to the Toms River Police. Fr. Mark
