HOW TO PREPARE FOR CONFESSION. By Parish custom, we do not have Penance Services, instead, we offer Examinations of Conscience in the bulletin and on our website in the weeks before our Lent

Confessions: March 22, 5:30-7:00 pm. The revised Order of Penance provides two Penitential Celebrations during Lent or PCDLs. This is Part 2 of our 4-part series on the two model PCDLs provided by the Order of Penance, which are intended to help us more fruitfully celebrate the Sacrament of Penance.

THE POWER OF HOLY WATER. After the Introduction to the Penance Service, which we reflected on last week, the Rite suggests Holy Water be used. Holy Water is a sacramental: ordinary earthly items, like water or palms, that help us better understand the supernatural heavenly grace offered in Sacraments and other Rites. Every Catholic home should have a container of Holy Water, especially Easter Water, which is not just blessed but consecrated, the highest form of a blessing! Water from the Jordan River, a Marian Shrine like Lourdes also works! Why water?

Besides being necessary for life as we know it, water cleanses and refreshes; and as water in a hot tub soothes achy muscles, holy water can heal sin-sick, wounded souls. As the Gospel attests: blood and water, the signs of Eucharist and Baptism, flowed from Christ's side as He slept in death on the Cross. Having been blessed with Holy Water, the Penance Service continues with this prayer, which we break into three sections:

O God, most gracious in creating the human race and most merciful in restoring it, who by the Blood of your Only Begotten Son redeemed us, deprived of eternal bliss by the envy of the devil, give life through your Holy Spirit to those whom you do not wish to die and lift up those you have reproved, for you do not abandon those who stray.

Baptism, and then, again and again, whenever we fall out of grace. For God will not permit the Devil, who deceived our First Parents, to win. And as the Bible notes: while the clay is still on the wheel, it can be pliable or remolded; but once it is hardened in a kiln, it is set firm and unchangeable. [Cf: Jeremiah 18:1-18] So, too, our sins: since venial sins can eventually morph into mortal sins, it is helpful to go to Confession, even to only confess venial sins. We must let God remake us in Confession ... before it is too late!

May the humble and trusting confession of these your children move you, O Lord. Heal their wounds. Stretch out your saving hand to those who have fallen, lest your Church be deprived of a portion of her body, lest your flock suffer loss, lest the enemy exalt at the harm inflicted on your family, lest the second death take those reborn in the cleansing waters of salvation.

The image of the Church as a body, the Body of Christ, is quite prevalent in Scripture and other writings. As this oration stresses, any injured or missing body parts make the body less than all that it can and should be. All lost sheep must be found and returned home. So, by reconciling us to God and one another, Confession restores unity and wholeness to the Church.

To you, Lord, we therefore pour out our humble prayers, the tears of our heart. Spare those who confess their sins, so that turned from the way of error to the paths of justice they may never again be harmed by new wounds. Rather, may what your grace bestowed and your mercy restored remain for them always intact. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives in reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

With repentant tears and childlike trust, we implore God to help keep us from harming each other and ourselves by our sins and their fallout. So often we forget the communal nature of our 'personal' actions: just as our good deeds can inspire others to perform good works, our sins can incite others to do evil. Next week: the second sample Penance Service.

In Christ,

Father Mark

Before coming to Confession on FRIDAY, MARCH 22 between 5:30 - 7:00 PM, examine your conscience; each week a different 'Examen' will be provided. To celebrate the Sacrament, start with your state in life [i.e., I'm married, single, parent, etc.] and approximate time since your last Confession; then list all grave, serious, major [mortal] sins by number and kind; a general admission of sinfulness suffices for less serious [venial] sins: i.e., impatience, intolerance, stinginess, lack of charity, forgiveness, etc. After the Priest offers a penance, listen to the Prayer of Absolution; please pray one of the revised Acts of Contrition PRIVATELY BEFORE or AFTER.

Act of Contrition #5 - from the revised Order of Penance

O God, most merciful Father,
like the Prodigal Son, I turn to you and say:
I have sinned against you;
I am no longer worthy to be called your child.

O Jesus Christ, Savior of the world,
like the thief to whom you
opened the gates of paradise,
I beg you: Lord, remember me in your Kingdom.

O Holy Spirit, fount of love, with trust I call on you:
Purify me; make me walk as a child of the light.

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE BASED ON SAINT PAUL'S 'LOVE POEM'

One of Saint Paul's best-known compositions is often proclaimed at weddings; however, it applies to all of us, at all times. How well do we live by the familiar words?

"Love is patient, love is kind.
It is not jealous, it is not pompous, it is not inflated,
it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests,
it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury,
it does not rejoice over wrongdoing
but rejoices with the truth."

It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails."
1 Corinthians 13:4-8a

Love is patient. Have I been patient with others? With God? With myself? With the small, slow steps usually required for almost anything in our imperfect world?

Love is kind. Are my words and deeds meant to build up or break down? Heal or hurt? Soothe or sting?

Love is not jealous. Do I put others down to lift up myself? Undermine or sabotage them? Allow my heart and mind to be poisoned by resentment or envy, bitterness or rage, negativity or self-pity?

Love is not pompous. Do I 'put on airs' or exaggerate my own importance? Brag or boast? Overinflate or exalt my own needs or desires?

Love is not inflated. Do I do things for others for my own benefit, to be thanked and praised - or do I truly help others simply because they need my help?

Love is not rude. Have I been compassionate, gentle, and respectful in all I say or do? Are the words, please and thank you a regular part of my vocabulary?

Love does not seek its own interests. Is my main goal to help myself or others? To make myself happy or others? To please God or others or to please myself?

Love is not quick-tempered. Do I easily 'fly off the handle' or do I try to temper and properly express my justified anger? Do I 'count to ten' or take a step back so my justified anger does not control what I say or do?

Love does not brood over injury. Do I 'nurse my wounds' to help cure them or make them worse? Do I more quickly count 'the wrongs' - or count 'the rights'?

Love does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. Do I find joy in other's failures or mistakes, sorrows or woes, misfortunes or challenges? Do I love to spread the bad news or brag about my misdeeds?

Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Do I allow my doubts that God's love can - and will - conquer everything - even death itself - keep me from being a channel of God's love - to others - and even to myself?

Love never fails. Am I "convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord?"

[Romans 8:38-39]
