MARRIAGE: The Sacrament of Marriage requires a time of spiritual preparation. According to the Common Policy adopted by the Bishops of New Jersey, this preparation requires attendance at a marriage preparation program (Pre-Cana) as well as sessions with the parish deacon or priest. Therefore, couples should make arrangements at the Parish Office one year before the planned wedding date and before finalizing any social plans.

MISSION STATEMENT: The goal of Saint Justin the Martyr Parish is that each member grow in the Grace through Jesus Christ, and in so doing cooperate with the Holy Spirit in giving glory to God, in experiencing the salvation of their soul, and in building up the Body of Christ.

REVISED BLESSING OF SACRED OILS. In the last part of our 5-part series on the revised Rite for Blessing the Sacred Oils, we reflect on the longer option for the Consecration of the SC: Sacred Chrism. You may find any of these or other past bulletin articles on our parish website. [Last week we explained the introduction to the Prayer, the addition of a balsam or perfume to the Oil before it is consecrated and how all Ordained Priests join the Bishop by extending their right hand toward the Oil, as they do when the Eucharist is consecrated.] This longer option gives quite a synopsis of the biblical basis for our use of Holy Oils! Notice how it highlights the use of Oil by King David, Noah, Moses and Aaron, John the Baptist and, above all, Jesus.

Consecration of the Sacred Chrism

God our maker, source of all growth in holiness, accept the joyful thanks and praise
we offer in the name of your Church.

In the beginning, at your command,
the earth produced fruit-bearing trees.

From the fruit of the olive tree
you have provided us with oil for holy chrism.

The prophet David sang of the life and joy that the oil would bring us in the sacraments of your love.

After the avenging flood, the dove returning to Noah with an olive branch announced your gift of peace.

This was a sign of a greater gift to come.

Now the waters of baptism wash away the sins of men, and by the anointing with olive oil
you make us radiant with your joy.

At your command, Aaron was washed with water,
and your servant Moses, his brother,
anointed him priest.

This too foreshadowed greater things to come.
After your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, asked John for baptism in the waters of Jordan, you sent the Spirit upon him in the form of a dove and by the witness of your own voice you declared him to be your only, well-beloved Son.

In this you clearly fulfilled the prophecy of David, that Christ would be anointed with the oil of gladness beyond his fellow men.

After recalling God's use of Holy Oil, all Ordained Priests extend their right hand toward the Sacred Chrism to join the Bishop in consecrating it:

And so, Father, we ask you to bless + this oil you have created.

Fill it with the power of your Holy Spirit
through Christ your Son.

It is from him that chrism takes its name and with chrism you have anointed for yourself priests and kings, prophets and martyrs.

Make this chrism a sign of life and salvation
for those who are to be born again in the waters of baptism.

Wash away the evil they have inherited from sinful Adam, and when they are anointed with this holy oil make them temples of your glory,
radiant with the goodness of life that has its source in you.

Through this sign of chrism grant them royal,
priestly, and prophetic honor,
and clothe them with incorruption.

Let this be indeed the chrism of salvation for those who will be born again
of water and the Holy Spirit.

May they come to share eternal life
in the glory of your kingdom.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRIST - CHRISM - CHRISTENING. The term 'chrism' comes from the word 'Christ' which means the 'Anointed One' which, in turn, means the One chosen and sent by God to be our Redeemer and Savior, and primary Source of all grace and blessing. At Baptism, infants are christened with Sacred Chrism on the crown of their head; in Confirmation, our forehead is anointed; in Holy Orders, newly ordained Priests' hands are anointed, authorizing him to offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and the heads of new Bishops are anointed before they receive the miter. New Altars and church walls are also consecrated with Sacred Chrism as they become the site where God comes to meet and comfort, speak to and direct, and feed and sanctify His People. I look forward to receiving the new Holy Oils at the start of Holy Thursday's Mass of the Lord's Supper.

Collections are vital to our existence as a Parish. If your circumstances permit, please consider donating to the parish at this time. I am thankful and grateful for your continued financial support during those challenging days to help us meet our weekly and monthly expenses. Many mail their contributions in and continue to do so. Here are some ways for you to help your parish:

- Place your offering in the receptacles at the doors as you enter or leave church.*  Mail in your envelopes weekly/monthly.
- Have your bank send us weekly/monthly check automatically from your checking account made out to Saint Justin Church with your envelope number on the check to get proper credit.*

Thank you for giving the above some consideration to help support your parish financially, and know it is greatly appreciated!

Before coming to Confession THIS FRIDAY, APRIL 8, between 5:30 - 7:00 PM, use the following to examine your conscience. To celebrate the Sacrament, start with your state in life [i.e., I'm married, single, parent, etc.] and approximate time since your last Confession; list all grave, serious, major [mortal] sins by number and kind; a general admission of sinfulness suffices for less serious [venial] sins: i.e., impatience, intolerance, stinginess, lack of charity, forgiveness, etc. After the Priest offers a penance, listen to the Prayer of Absolution; please pray the Act of Contrition PRIVATELY BEFORE or AFTER.

Act of Contrition #6 - from the Rite of Penance

Lord Jesus Christ, you are the Lamb of God;
you take away the sins of the world.
Through the grace of the Holy Spirit restore me to friendship with your Father, cleanse me from every stain of sin
in the blood you shed for me, and raise me to new life for the glory of your name.

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE USING SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI'S PEACE PRAYER

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Have I allowed the Spirit of Jesus into my life, or have I been busy about many things, seeking peace elsewhere? Have I sought to find my peace and escape my responsibilities through such things as alcohol, drugs, self-centered pleasures, etc.? Have I allowed God to love and forgive me?

Where there is hatred, let me sow love.

Am I willing to take that extra step needed to bring bitterness and resentment to an end? Do I have the courage to love my family, my friends, my neighbors, even myself - the way Jesus loves - sacrificially? Would someone see in my relationships the words: "See how these Christians love one another?"

Where there is injury, pardon.

Have I built bridges between people? Or do I fan the flames of discord, enjoying the little sarcasms and petty feuds that be-devil the world? Is there someone in my life who cannot feel healed and made whole until I say, "I forgive you?"

Where there is doubt, faith.

Have I been the sort of person in whom someone can believe? Do I make possible the kind of experiences of personal faith that set the stage for faith in God? Am I willing to put my own faith on the line, even at the risk of being mocked or put down? Am I willing to share my faith, through prayer and involvement?

Where there is despair, hope.

Do I project the image of a hopeful person? Am I optimistic? Or am I a grouch, able to see only the deficiencies of human nature and not the grace of God at work within us? Am I willing and able to listen to the person who needs me to hear? Do I care and take time to listen with the ear, but also with the heart?

Where there is darkness, light.

Do I seek to live and act in the light or would I rather hide under cover of darkness? Am I an apostle of God's Light? Or have I created shadows and gloom in the lives of people, treating them as objects rather than as persons, hurting their feelings, and damaging their good name by gossip or slander?

Where there is sadness, joy.

Am I a joyful person, or a prophet of gloom? Am I able to laugh, even at myself, and see the humor that exists at the heart of our pilgrim experience? Are people enriched and gladdened or diminished and saddened whenever they meet me?

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love.

Have I discovered what it means to be, like Jesus, a person for others? Do I believe that the more I give in love, the more I have to give?

For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

In what way am I a prisoner of self today, held captive by fear or guilt or doubt or sin? What is there in me that must die, if I am to live and breathe free, and know that I am loved by God? Will I be reborn this Lent through the confession of my sins?

NO REGULAR CONFESSIONS WILL BE HELD ON SATURDAYS starting March 5th until after Easter Sunday

Our Parish Confession Service Friday, April 8th, 5:30pm to 7:00pm.

Several Priests will be available in the parish hall . This is the last opportunity before Easter Sunday
