MARRIAGE: The Sacrament of Marriage requires a time of spiritual preparation. According to the Common Policy adopted by the Bishops of New Jersey, this preparation requires attendance at a marriage preparation program (Pre-Cana) as well as sessions with the parish deacon or priest. Therefore, couples should make arrangements at the Parish Office one year before the planned wedding date and before finalizing any social plans.

MISSION STATEMENT: The goal of Saint Justin the Martyr Parish is that each member grow in the Grace through Jesus Christ, and in so doing cooperate with the Holy Spirit in giving glory to God, in experiencing the salvation of their soul, and in building up the Body of Christ.

From the Pastor
2nd Sunday of Easter - A
April 16, 2023

WHERE WAS SAINT THOMAS? Every year, on the 2nd Sunday of Easter [once called ‘Low Sunday’ due to last Sunday’s highly festive, ‘pull-out-all-the-stops’ Easter celebration, we always hear the so-called Gospel of ‘Doubting Thomas.’ Where in the world was this Apostle who refused to believe in Christ’s Resurrection until he probed the nail marks in Jesus’ hands with his fingers and put his hand into the Risen Lord’s sword-torn-opened chest wound? Scripture does not tell us where The Doubter was the week after that first Easter ... but it certainly stresses where he was NOT! Thomas was NOT with the other ten Apostles [Judas had already committed suicide] in that Upper Room where they had celebrated the Last Supper!

While what we write now is pure conjecture, We do believe it makes logical sense. Did the Crucifixion so overwhelm Saint Thomas with grief and disappointment, fear and frustration, anger and hopelessness that he turned into himself and shunned everyone else? Did he foolishly try to process and deal with life’s harsh realities on his own, without any help? He had been so firmly committed to Christ when Jesus took them to Lazarus’ tomb, which we heard a few weeks ago: “So Thomas, called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, ‘Let us also go to die with him.’” [John 11:16] Had his faith and trust faltered? Or was he simply trying to move on without being part of the fledgling Infant Church?

There are many who have also sadly given up on God and His Church - to their own loss - and ours! Their reasons for leaving are ‘legion’: the sex abuse scandals; financial misdeeds; personality conflicts; or something “Sister or Father [supposedly] said or did” ... some 30, 50, 70 or more years ago! Some simply subscribe to the same notion that Saint Thomas seemingly succumbed to: “I can do it alone; I don’t need any help; I can figure it out on my own ...”

Perhaps the primary problem is that: just like the ‘Doubter,’ we do not believe what Saint Thomas eventually - and so proudly - professed: that Christ IS, indeed, risen from the dead - and is TRULY PRESENT in many ways. God speaks to each generation’s questions and issues through His holy word and the Church’s teaching or her 2,000-year reflection on, and application of, Sacred Scripture. The Lord offers support and encouragement through the Christian Community who gathers in His Name. God makes us His own children in Baptism; gifts us with the Holy Spirit in Confirmation; shepherds us through those in Holy Orders; mercifully forgives us in the Sacrament of Penance; strengthens and consoles us in the Anointing of the Sick; and serves as the binding ointment between husbands and wives and the rest of the family in the Sacrament of Matrimony. Who would NOT want to be a part of, and able to cash in on, all of these spiritual blessings?

SAINT THOMAS: THE FIRST CHRISTIAN TO MISS A SUNDAY EVENT, BUT NOT THE LAST! It seems that, from the start, some Christians were AWOL! While the following quote may sound like something you hear in a homily or read in a bulletin article or even the biannual letter to all registered parishioners, it is far from new! “We must consider how to rouse one another to love and good works. We should not stay away from our assembly,” as is the custom of some, but encourage one another, and this all the more as you see the day drawing near.” [Hebrews 10:24-25] A footnote * in the revised New American Bible, the English translation used by the Church in the USA, explains what “our assembly” means.

The words, “our assembly,” are used elsewhere in the New Testament [Romans 2:16; 1 Corinthians 3:13; 1 Thessalonians 5:2] for the Christian Community which met weekly, on Sunday, as a ‘dress rehearsal’ for the ultimate Judgment Day of the Lord. The Jewish custom to meet on Saturday, based on the Commandment to “keep holy the Sabbath Day,” was ‘altered’ by the Apostles who, authorized by Christ to declare loose or bound, changed it to Sunday. This answers the oft-asked question, “Where in the Bible is the obligation to attend weekly Mass?” The National Eucharistic Revival [see the past articles about it on our parish website] is intended to help us ‘recapture’ the weekly Sunday Obligation. Happy Easter!

In Christ,

Religious Education

Next weekend we will begin our celebration of two blessed sacraments in our parish. We ask that you hold in prayer our young people preparing for the Sacraments of First Holy Eucharist and Confirmation and their families.

April 22nd-23rd and April 29th-30th - sixty two children will be welcomed at the Table of the Lord for the first time. May the joy and peace of Jesus be with them always.

April 25th - forty-four young people will be confirmed in the faith and the Minister of the Sacrament is Reverend Mark A. Kreder, our pastor. May the Holy Spirit continue to guide and inspire them throughout their life On behalf of our pastor, Father Mark, our clergy and staff, we thank our parents/guardians, the primary catechists for their children, and our catechists and aides for sharing faith with these young people. We also thank our music ministry for helping our celebration come alive in song and all who assisted in preparing for these sacraments.

REMINDER

There will be no classes on Tuesday, April 25th in observance of the celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation.

FORMED

God's School of Trust | Divine Mercy | Episode 1

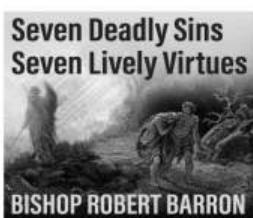

The sin of our first parents, Adam and Eve, has distorted the way we see God. But God hasn't given up on us. In fact, he has tirelessly worked to heal our distorted image of him through his "School of Trust," beginning with his Chosen People in the Old Testament.

St. Bernadette of Lourdes

St. Bernadette of Lourdes

"St. Bernadette of Lourdes" is a beautiful and faithful retelling of the familiar story of one of the world's most beloved saints. Humorous, moving, and reverent, this unique, award-winning, independent film has been seen by millions worldwide and has sold tens of thousands of copies since its release in 2009.

Seven Deadly Sins, Seven Lively Virtues by Bishop Robert Barron

Join noted professor of theology and author Bishop Robert Barron in this revealing presentation as he sheds light on the seven deadly sins—those great spiritual blocks that inhibit our relationship with God and others—and the antidote to them, the seven lively virtues!

Home for Funerals

Peace of Mind and Heart
before, during and beyond

The Timothy E. Ryan Funeral Homes are places of compassion, caring and understanding.

A funeral service at a Timothy E. Ryan Funeral Home is one that addresses your concerns, meets all of your needs and expectations and does so within the warmth and protection of my family.
