MARRIAGE: The Sacrament of Marriage requires a time of spiritual preparation. According to the Common Policy adopted by the Bishops of New Jersey, this preparation requires attendance at a marriage preparation program (Pre-Cana) as well as sessions with the parish deacon or priest. Therefore, couples should make arrangements at the Parish Office one year before the planned wedding date and before finalizing any social plans.

MISSION STATEMENT: The goal of Saint Justin the Martyr Parish is that each member grow in the Grace through Jesus Christ, and in so doing cooperate with the Holy Spirit in giving glory to God, in experiencing the salvation of their soul, and in building up the Body of Christ.

From the Pastor
3rd Sunday of Easter - A
April 23, 2023

THEY CAME TO KNOW HIM IN THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD. In the bulletin article two weeks ago, on Easter Sunday, we wrote about today's Gospel of the two disciples on the Road to Emmaus who came to know the Risen Lord in "the breaking of the bread." [Luke 24:35] Last week, we wrote about the 2nd Sunday of Easter's Gospel in which Saint Thomas tried to get to know the Risen Lord without joining the other Apostles. For 2,000 years, many have also tried to know Jesus without coming to Sunday Mass or receiving the Eucharist. Here are some of the reasons why the Catechism of the Catholic Church, based on sacred Scripture, has a 'Sunday Obligation' weekly gathering rule:

"On Sundays and other holy days of obligation, the faithful are to refrain from engaging in work or activities that hinder the worship owed to God, the joy proper to the Lord's Day, the performance of the works of mercy, and the appropriate relaxation of mind and body. Family needs or important social service can legitimately excuse from the obligation of Sunday rest. The faithful should see to it that legitimate excuses do not lead to habits prejudicial to religion, family life, and health." [CCC #2185]

... "Sanctifying Sundays and holy days requires a common effort. Every Christian should avoid making unnecessary demands on others that would hinder them from observing the Lord's Day. Traditional activities (sports, restaurants, etc.), and social necessities (public services, etc.), require some people to work on Sundays, but everyone should still take care to set aside sufficient time for leisure... In spite of economic constraints, public authorities should ensure citizens a time intended for rest and divine worship. Employers have a similar obligation toward their employees." [CCC #2187]

... "those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin." [CCC #2181] Notice it does NOT say it is a 'mortal' sin, which requires three conditions: it must be a serious matter [which it is] - knowledge [you know ... or should know ... that it is wrong!] and consent [you must freely choose it, even though you know it is wrong].

There are legitimate reasons for missing Mass, like: being ill; caring for an infant or sick person; it's physically or morally impossible, as on a cruise ship that offers no Mass, navigating flooded or icy roads, etc.; the Priest does not show up [trying to get to another church is commendable, but not required]; children or those unable to drive but have no one to drive them; etc. [Cf: CCC #2181] However, while those who fit these categories are not guilty of sin, they are still obligated to "keep holy the Sabbath Day" by spending some time in prayer, alone or with others, watching a broadcasted Mass, etc. [The COVID caused dispensation from Mass is long over, as is simply watching Mass via the media!]

Pastors are permitted to dispense from - or just commute [suggesting alternative ways to keep Sunday holy, like meditating on the readings, etc.] - those who know in advance that they will be unable to participate in holy Mass on a Sunday or Holy Day of Obligation. Travelling or vacationing of itself does not excuse us, unless getting to Mass creates an undue burden. The 1983 revised Code of Canon Law removed the stipulation that 'as long as I get in before the Gospel and stay until the Priest's Communion I've fulfilled my obligation' notion. If we're late because of unforeseen circumstances [traffic, accident, issues with children, etc.] or must leave early for a valid reason, we fulfill our obligation. Why we were late/left early determines if we did or did not fulfill the obligation.

While Saturday was the Sabbath Day, that was changed when Jesus rose from the dead on the eighth day, the first day of the week, and appeared to Mary Magdalene, the Apostles in the Last Supper's Upper Room, the two disciples on the Road to Emmaus, and the previously absent Saint Thomas ... on a Sunday. Thus, the Apostles, to whom Christ gave the power 'to loose or to bind,' began to meet weekly on Sundays - a tradition the Catholic Church has kept ever since.

So, Holy Mother Church, who knows what is best for her children, lovingly obligates us to come together each Sunday or Saturday night to hear God's word, receive Jesus in the Eucharist, and support each other! Happy Eastertime!

In Christ,

Father Mark

Collections are vital to our existence as a Parish. If your circumstances permit, please consider donating to the parish at this time. I am thankful and grateful for your continued financial support to help us meet our weekly and monthly expenses. Many mail their contributions in and continue to do so. Here are some ways for you to help your parish:

- Place your offering in the receptacles at the doors as you enter or leave church.*
- Mail in your envelopes weekly/monthly.*
- Have your bank send us weekly/monthly check automatically from your checking account made out to Saint Justin Church with your envelope number on the check to get proper credit.*

Thank you for giving the above some consideration to help support your parish financially, and know it is greatly appreciated! Fr. Mark

Would you like to commemorate a special occasion or honor the memory of a loved one or just help out with the beautifying of our church?

Consider donating the money for the flowers for Mass! The cost of the altar flowers is $100.00. We will print the occasion or the name of the person being honored in the bulletin and those who donated the flowers. Please contact the Parish Office at 732-270-3980

Religious Education

This weekend we will begin our celebration of two blessed sacraments in our parish. We ask that you hold in prayer our young people preparing for the Sacraments of First Holy Eucharist and Confirmation and their families.

April 22nd-23rd and April 29th-30th - sixty two children will be welcomed at the Table of the Lord for the first time. May the joy and peace of Jesus be with them always.

April 25th - forty-four young people will be confirmed in the faith and the Minister of the Sacrament is Reverend Mark A. Kreder, our pastor. May the Holy Spirit continue to guide and inspire them throughout their life On behalf of our pastor, Father Mark, our clergy and staff, we thank our parents/guardians, the primary catechists for their children, and our catechists and aides for sharing faith with these young people. We also thank our music ministry for helping our celebration come alive in song and all who assisted in preparing for these sacraments.

REMINDER

There will be no classes on Tuesday, April 25th in observance of the celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Week of April 23, 2023

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Episode 1: Saint Mark the Evangelist

Just who is St. Mark, the author of this short but action-packed Gospel? Using outside sources, other books of the Bible, and the Gospel itself, Dr. Gray takes a closeup look at St. Mark, and his connection with St. Peter and the Christians of Rome.

Who is St. Catherine of Siena?

In light of St. Catherine of Siena's feast day, join Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Elizabeth Klein, as they celebrate this holy woman: a nurse and mystic with papal influence who became a doctor of the Church.

Can You Trust God? by Dr. Tim Gray

To be a saint, we must trust God wholeheartedly. Since the fall of our first parents, however, humanity has been tempted to mistrust the Father's love for us. Scripture scholar Dr. Tim Gray takes us on a journey that addresses the pervasive misconceptions about God, showing us that there is no reason not to follow him.
