SAINT BONIFACE: THE PATRON SAINT OF D-DAY?

On June 5, the Church honors an English-born man who was baptized with the name Winfrid. Born in Devonshire in 675, he became a Benedictine Monk, taking the religious name Boniface, and was elected by his brothers as their Abbot. At the request of Pope Gregory II [reigned: 715-731], he left monastic life to evangelize and convert the pagan Germanic peoples. Armed with the Word of God or Sacred Scripture, the Sacraments, the support of the Church and her leadership under Saint Peter's Successor, the Pope, other Catholic [albeit very imperfect] Monarchs and a team of coworkers, he went - radically outnumbered - on what many considered a suicide mission.

However, Saint Boniface's eventual success, which he did not live to see [at least while he was still on earth!] had been guaranteed by the One who said, "And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it." [Matthew 16:18] More about Saint Boniface, who is nicknamed the 'Apostle to Germany,' his bravery, the means by which he converted Germany to Christianity, and helped the Church to grow in that region of Europe, after praying the Collect offered at holy Mass on his Feast Day.

Saint Boniface, Bishop & Martyr - Collect

May the Martyr Saint Boniface be our advocate, O Lord, that we may firmly hold the faith he taught with his lips and sealed in his blood and confidently profess it by our deeds. Through our Lord Jesus ... for ever and ever. Amen.

took an ax and chopped down a huge oak tree revered as the home of the Norse god Thor. [He is often depicted in art shirtless, holding an ax or chopping down a tree.] When the tree was felled, and he survived, the pagans were moved to convert - but he faced other challenges.

The few Christians he found were so lax and misinformed because of improperly formed or corrupt clergy, so he took them on, too! With so many challenges, he returned to Rome to report his findings to the Pope, who enlisted the help of secular leaders, like the powerful Frankish ruler who was Charlemagne's grandfather. Fortified with an international coalition and being named a Bishop, and eventually, Archbishop of all of Germany, Boniface returned to his mission. The two main hallmarks of his ministry were: his adherence and promotion of official dogma and doctrine, and fierce loyalty to the Pope. During his final mission, Boniface and over fifty of his companions were martyred while in Holland on June 5, 754.

WHAT'S HIS TIE TO D-DAY? No doubt, as the men and women prepared for the onslaught they would endure on D-Day, they prayed. [There were a few female pilots and other support crew members, as well as one female war correspondent, Martha Gellhorn, on Normandy beach on D-Day!] And any Catholics who knew that the day before D-Day was the Feast of Saint Boniface, in whose steps they were walking, and whose battle they were continuing, must have sought, and relied on, his intercession. And certainly, the faithful in Germany and other countries under Nazi domination may have been aware of the coincidental or Divinely Providential timing of these two events. [Go to <https://www.americamagazine.org/politics-society/2019/04/05/saint-boniface-patron-saint-d-day> for more info on this topic.]

As we wage our societal battles with the forces of evil: paganism, secularism or wokeism - or our own personal battles against addictions, temptations, sinful desires, bad influences, etc., enlist the support of this brave, formidable Saint who knows what it is to stand firm against the foe! Saint Boniface, pray for us!

In Christ,

Rev. Mark A. Kreder, Pastor

AN UPHILL BATTLE. In 719, Boniface arrived in Germany to begin his first missionary campaign. The few traces he found of Christianity from previous missions undertaken by others had lapsed into paganism. Local chieftains promoted many false narratives to unite the people to their causes, and heavily relied on fear to keep them in line, as did the Nazis centuries later. To prove their uselessness, Boniface destroyed pagan idols and temples. Supposedly, in Saxony, he

Dear Parish Family of St. Justin's, we will be joining St. Joseph's Church in this Eucharistic Procession in celebration of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) See full information below. Please join in this beautiful expression of our faith in the True Presence of Christ in the Eucharist

will be having a

EUCARISTIC PROCESSION

in celebration of

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

also known as

Corpus Christi

SUNDAY JUNE 11th, 2023 – following the 12 noon Mass

A Eucharistic Procession, just like Eucharistic Adoration, is an extension of the worship of Jesus Christ, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. The supreme act of adoration and the source and summit of the Christian life is the celebration of the Mass, and that celebration is prolonged and intensified through Eucharistic worship outside of the Mass. In Eucharistic Processions, the missionary aspect of the Eucharist is emphasized as we go forth into the world. Not only gazing upon our Eucharistic Lord, but walking with him, we experience what the disciples did 2000 years ago as they walked with Jesus, proclaiming the Good News to the world. A parish community that undertakes a Eucharistic Procession has made the decision to publicly proclaim its belief in Jesus' True Presence in the Eucharist. By this public witness of faith, the parish invites people in the community to encounter the Risen Lord present in the Eucharistic Host. (excerpt from "Eucharistic Processions" published by the Knights of Columbus).

All are invited to participate. The procession will start immediately following the Sunday June 11th 12:00 noon Mass. We will be processing down Hooper Ave, through Washington Street and down Main Street to Huddy Park (approx. 1 mile) where we will have a short worship and prayer experience. We will then process back to St Joseph's Church and conclude with benediction around 3:00PM. Parish ministries are encouraged to bring banners.

This year Corpus Christi, as well, marks the beginning of the second year of the National Eucharistic Revival – the year of the Parish. What better way could there be to boldly witness our belief in the True Presence than to follow our Eucharistic Lord through the streets of our town?
