Father's Day

DO YOU PRAY FOR DECEASED PRIESTS?

On this Father's Day,
I appeal, on behalf of my deceased brothers, for your prayers. As I often note, I rarely find the name of a Clergyman, Nun, Religious Sister or Brother on All Souls' Day Memorial Envelopes. Please do NOT assume we go right to heaven; like you, we need prayers and sacrifices offered in our memory! Bishops, Priests and Deacons can easily remember to pray for our deceased brothers through what is called an 'Ordo.'

An Ordo, Latin for 'Order,' is a small booklet particular to each Province; our Province is comprised of the 5 NJ Roman Catholic Dioceses. One side of each Ordo page lists the prescribed Readings, Orations, Liturgical Color, Ranking [Solemnity, Feast, Memorial, Optional Memorial] and all options and updates for each day of the year. The other side lists the name of/year in which a Bishop, Priest or Deacon in the Archdiocese of Newark or Dioceses of Trenton, Camden, Paterson or Metuchen, died on that day. The earliest are Rev. James Murray: 1854; exact date unknown, and Rev. Rudolph Etthoffer: June 30, 1855; the highest number of deaths: 20, is on May 23; the average is 6 or 7 per day. Use the orations below, made singular/ plural, to pray for the deceased Priests who ministered to you.

Collect - For Deceased Priests - A

Grant, we pray, O Lord, that the soul[s] of N., your servant[s] and Priest[s], whom you honored with sacred office while he/they lived in this world, may exult for ever in the glorious home of heaven.
Through our Lord Jesus ... for ever and ever. Amen.

PLEASE RETURN THE FAVOR! A Priest's essential ministry is to pray, intercede, and offer sacrifice for those entrusted to his care ... and for all the world. When we die, we need you to return the favor by praying, interceding, and offering sacrifice for us. The above quote in the clipart, from Saint Joseph Moscati, [1880-1927] Italian biochemist, professor and physician dedicated to the care of the poor, attests to what I said about the absence of deceased Clergy and Religious on All Souls' Memorials. We who bring your loved ones to their grave after ministering to and guiding them toward heaven need your help so we can also attain eternal glory!

Prayer over the Offerings - For Deceased Priests - A

Grant, we pray, almighty God, that through these holy mysteries
N., your servant[s] and Priest[s], may behold with clarity for ever what he/they faithfully ministered here.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRIESTS ARE SINNERS, TOO! While I know we all know this sad truth, some never consider or forget this harsh reality: to destroy the Church, Satan usually starts with her Priests. As Saint Teresa of Avila noted: "Behind each Priest is a demon fighting for his fall. If we have the language to criticize them, we must have twice as much to pray for him." Even though we handle Divine Mysteries and preach the Gospel Truth, we, like you, struggle to live by it, day after day. And as we hear your Confessions, we become more painfully aware of our own faults and failings. Again, prayers and sacrifices are essential for our salvation - while we are in this world - and when we pass into the next world!

Prayer after Communion - For Deceased Priests - A

Having received the Sacrament of salvation,
we implore your kindness, O God, for N., your servant[s] and Priest[s], that, as you made him/they a steward of your mysteries on earth, so you may bring him/they to be nourished by their truth and reality as unveiled in heaven.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PERFECTION IS ONLY FOUND IN HEAVEN. As Saint Paul said: "At present we see indistinctly, as in a mirror, but then face to face. At present I know partially; then I shall know fully ..."
[1 Corinthians 13:12] While this means that the words and deeds of Priests will always be imperfect, it gets worse. For as the Archbishop Fulton Sheen reminded us: "Satan always tempts the pure. The rest are already his." So, please pray that God forgives all Priests, living and deceased, for their faults, and rewards them for their goodness.

In Christ,

Please support this worthy cause

The 2024 Annual Catholic Appeal theme mirrors the teachings of Christ and resonates with the wisdom of Colossians: "And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity." Every day, throughout the Diocese of Trenton, our parishes share God's love through the many diocesan ministries made possible by your generous support. Through the love of Jesus we are bound together as one family in faith - supporting, guiding and caring for one another.

Your gift to the Appeal helps ensure there will be priests and deacons who strive to embody God's mercy in all they do, to sustain and nurture the sacramental life of our parishes.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED FOR THE UPCOMING PROGRAM YEAR

We are in need of catechists for our religious education program which runs from September to early May. Our catechists assist the parents/guardians, the primary educators of their child, to plant seeds of faith. They are good stewards of our Catholic faith. They are people like you who are willing to take the time to help our young children, the future of our faith, to be good Catholic people. Would you like to be a catechist? Please contact our Religious Education office at \(732\) 270-3797 for more information. We are also in need of two hall aides who sign children in and out for early dismissal.
