THE IMPORTANCE OF SACRED LITURGY. One year ago this week, on the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles, June 29, Pope Francis issued an Apostolic Letter. Entitled 'Desiderio

Desideravi,' Latin for "I have earnestly desired," its opening line is what Jesus told the disciples before the Last Supper: "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer." [Luke 22:15] We say these same words in the Introduction of Holy Thursday's Mass of the Lord's Supper!

Desiderio Desideravi dovetails perfectly with our years-long series on the 2022-2025 National Eucharistic Revival, of which this is Part #30. The theme of this Letter is the proper celebration of the Sacred Liturgy at holy Mass. Since Eucharist can only be confected during a holy Mass, and Mass without the Eucharist reduces it to a mere memorial or Protestant Service, these two documents are a perfect blend. So, for a few weeks, we will share with you its various themes. To read it yourself, search for it by its Latin name: 'Desiderio Desideravi.'

THE CLIMAX OF GOD'S SELF-REVELATION. The Bible is a love story of God's self-revelation to us: first through Creation, then through the Patriarchs, Commandments, Prophets and Temple Sacrifices of old. By coming to live as one of us, Jesus completes God's self-revelation, but on His last night on earth, He chose to make His Real Presence visible, tangible, and receivable in the form of bread and wine. Which makes the Last Supper no ordinary meal; its preparations set the stage for the great miracle of our Lord's Eucharistic Presence until the end of time!

"LORD, I AM NOT WORTHY!" Those invited to the Last Supper were not worthy of receiving that great gift. Scripture never says if the Blessed Virgin Mary ever received Eucharist; if she did, the case could be made that she was worthy, as she merited bearing God's Incarnate Son in her sinless womb! And none of us are worthy to receive Eucharist or distribute that Gift as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion or Deacon, or confect it as a Priest or Bishop

However, all are invited to partake in the Eucharist in one way or another; but the onus is on them to fulfill every prerequisite to being the Lord's guest. Among them are: becoming a fully initiated Catholic who has received Baptism, Confirmation and First Eucharist; live according to Church teaching; if married, be in a valid Marriage; confess all serious, grave mortal sins before receiving, and, ideally, confess all sins at least once a year; be a knowledgeable, regular, active participant in the holy Mass.

A RESPONSE, NOT AN OBLIGATION! As the Holy Father notes, it was the desire of the Lord Jesus - at the Last Supper - to make Himself available and 'truly present' to all His disciples until His return in glory. Jesus was thinking of, and inviting us to, the Banquet as He sat at table with the Apostles that night! What a beautiful reality to reflect on: among whatever 'prompts' or 'moves' us to come to holy Mass and receive Holy Communion, is Jesus' desire for us to come to Him! Here's how Pope Francis explains it: "We may not even be aware of it, but every time we go to Mass, the first reason is that we are drawn there by his desire for us. [We must] surrender to this love ... letting ourselves be drawn by him. Indeed, every reception of communion of the Body and Blood of Christ was already desired by him in the Last Supper." [Desiderio Desideravi #6]

TRULY PRESENT IN THE SACRAMENTS. From the very beginning, the Church was fully aware that the Eucharist was not merely a memorial or remembrance as Protestants profess. For sacred Scripture states, "He was made known to them in the breaking of the bread." [Luke 24:35] Notice they were not reminded of Jesus, or simply able to recall what He said and did when they broke the bread; they came to KNOW Him! No wonder our Blessed Mother, who 'knew' Him better than anyone else, and needed no reminders to help her recall Him, joined the Apostles for, among other things, the breaking of bread. [Cf: Acts 1:14; 2:42] If our Blessed Mother, with all her graces, joined in the sacred mysteries, shouldn't we? Next week: the next section in the 'Desiderio Desideravi' Letter: the Liturgy: THE place of encounter [for now!] with Christ.

Please keep in your prayers, our neighbor and friend, Father Robert Grodnicki, Pastor of St. Luke Parish who will retire this week. We thank him for his service and may Our Lord bless him in retirement.

And for our President and Leaders of our Country.

Dear Parish Family, As we mentioned on both Mother’s Day and Father’s Day, we opted to make a donation to Birthright and Good Counsel homes in lieu of a small gift.

One of the great attributes of our parish is the generosity and kindness of our people. Our parish has always responded generously to any appeal to help the less fortunate; whether it be the Christmas Giving Tree, the missionary appeal, the Rice Bowls and any other collection for the less fortunate.

We are a people of life and to build up a culture of life, pro-lifers must build up hearts as well. This entails the recognition that the pro-life position is also pro-woman. It requires every effort to help women in crisis pregnancies, availing them of the assistance they need and deserve.

These two pregnancy resource centers are staffed by wonderful people who are motivated by love. They have a deep affection for mothers and children. Being pro-life isn’t an abstract concept; it’s deeply personal and inherently connected with those they serve. They believe that every life, every soul, has worth and value.

Our parish has consistently donated to these great causes. I thank you all for your generosity. Below is a letter we received from Birthright after our recent donation.

"Once again as we review our finances for the past months, we find many instances of St Justin’s continuing support. We are so grateful! Our main efforts now (post-pandemic) are to reacquaint the community that we are here to help. Thanks for always being there for us."

God bless all those who work for Birthright of Ocean County and all of you for your generosity! Fr. Mark

On Sunday, June 18th, I recommended listening to an interview by Trevor Williams.

Trevor Williams is an American professional baseball pitcher for the Washington Nationals of Major League Baseball (MLB). In an interview with EWTN's Colm Flynn, Williams spoke about his Catholic faith, being a father of four children and the LA Dodgers honoring an anti-Catholic hate group.

There are two links on YouTube to his interview. I highly recommend listening and viewing both of them. In this link about 6 minutes, Trevor talks about his Catholic faith and being a father of four children:

<https://youtu.be/oHvZtqxXM-Q>

In this link about 12 minutes, Trevor speaks out on the LA Dodgers controversy: <https://youtu.be/-bQ1hK0Ky14>

Both videos are worth listening to. I commend Trevor Williams. He is a wonderful role model for our young people in a day and age when there are so many forces and people who are bad influences on them.

God bless him and his family. Fr. Mark
