FEET OF CHRIST
Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good.

From the Pastor
14th Sunday in Ordinary Time - A
July 9, 2023

THE IMPORTANCE OF SACRED LITURGY. Our next reflection on Pope Francis' 2022 Apostolic Letter, 'Desiderio Desideravi,' Latin for Jesus' pre-Last Supper words: "I have earnestly desired [to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.]" [Luke 22:15] considers the Liturgy as THE place to encounter Christ. 'Desiderio Desideravi' [DD] dovetails so perfectly with our years-long series on the 2022-2025 National Eucharistic Revival: this is Part #32 of that ongoing reflection on the Eucharist.

THE CHURCH: SACRAMENT OF THE BODY OF CHRIST. Those who, like me, are 'old' [or 'seasoned!'] enough to remember the Baltimore Catechism should recall the answer to question #574: "What is a Sacrament?" [Failing to remember it could cause your Confirmation to be revoked!] The answer is: "A Sacrament is an outward sign instituted by Christ to give grace." As "the image of the invisible God" [Colossians 1:15] and God's "Word made Flesh" [Cf. John 1:14], Jesus Christ is the ultimate 'Sacrament.' To know, hear and see God, we need only to learn from and imitate, listen to and reflect on Jesus Christ.

However, as Saint Paul was shocked to learn on that road to Damascus, the Church IS the Body of Christ. For as the Lord Jesus said to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?" [Acts 9:4] In Saint Paul's understanding at the time, he was only persecuting the members of this new sect of Judaism who acknowledged Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah - not the Christ Himself. But as the Risen Lord made perfectly clear: the Church IS His Body, His Presence - and whatever is done to His Church is done to Him!

THE CHURCH: BRIDE OF THE NEW ADAM. Scripture presents the Church as the Bride of Christ, who, as a loving husband, will always defend and protect his bride. Through the ages, from early Church leaders, the 'Fathers of the Church,' most of whom were Bishops, to the most recent papal documents, the Church has consistently taught that she came forth from the pierced side of the Crucified Christ as He slept in death on the Cross - a most intriguing imagery.

For after creating and supplying Adam with all he needed to live in this world, God "cast a deep sleep on the man, and while he was asleep, he took out one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. The LORD God then built the rib that he had taken from the man into a woman. When he brought her to the man, the man said: "This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; This one shall be called 'woman,' for out of man this one has been taken." [Genesis 2:21-23] Saint Paul quotes this segment from Genesis in his teaching on Marriage, adding, "This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the church." [Ephesians 5:32] We MUST grasp this marital image to truly understand the holy Mass!

As we heard in the Eastertime intro to the Rite of Sprinkling: "... from the pierced side of the Crucified Christ flowed both blood and water, the source of the Church's sacramental life." These words refer to how, after breaking the legs on the two men executed with Jesus - rendering them unable to lift themselves up to breathe, so they quickly suffocated - a soldier thrust his lance into the side of Jesus who was already dead. [Cf. John 19:31-37] Thereafter, Jesus would see US as Adam saw Eve: as 'bone of his bone and flesh of his flesh!' What an awesome, wonder-filled way to see ourselves: as Christ's Bride, His beloved, His Heart's desire!

This, in turn, raises what we do at holy Mass from merely 'fulfilling an obligation' or 'rendering fitting praise' as some see it, to being participants in the marriage of Christ and His Church. At holy Mass, we are united to Christ in a most intimate way as we become one with Him in His self-sacrifice, offered out of obedience to His Father's will - and out of love for us. This, in turns, means that each one of us cannot 'do our own thing' at holy Mass; we must be, as was said of the Apostles and the first Christians, of one mind and one heart, united in one love and one mission, working - not as individuals with personal goals, but as a community who share in the breaking of bread. [Cf. Acts 1:14; 2:42-46; 4:32-37]

Next week: what can - and what must - we ALL do to promote the full, conscious, active, and fruitful celebration of the holy Mass?

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion Needed

We are asking that you prayerfully consider serving as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion at Mass and/or for the homebound.

The ministry of the Extraordinary Minister is to assist in the distribution of Holy Communion at Mass or to bring Communion to the sick and homebound who would not be able to receive the Sacrament otherwise.

The members of St. Justin the Martyr Parish stay connected with parish members who are not able to celebrate Mass together due to illness or physical/mental incapacities. Homebound ministers have the privilege of taking our Lord, present in the Eucharist to homebound members of our church, letting them know they are loved and being prayed for.

If you feel the Lord is calling you to this important and rewarding ministry, please call the Parish Office at 732-270-3980 extension 301. We will provide training. All the details of 'how and when' are explained during training. Visits include opportunities to share fellowship and friendship.

If you would like to do hospital visits, St. Joseph Parish is looking for help to serve Community Hospital as an Extraordinary Eucharistic Minister. For ministry at the hospital, please contact St. Joseph Parish ~ JoAnn D'Anton 732-349-0018 x2223.

Whether serving at Mass, to the sick and homebound of St. Justin Parish or the hospital, you must be eligible as per the Diocesan Guidelines.
