WITH GOD, ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE! Three centuries before the establishment of the International Committee of the Red Cross [ICRC], which met for the first time, on February 17, 1863, its ideals and goals were already being promoted - and lived out - by a Catholic Priest and future Saint. Born in Italy on May 25, 1550, Camillus de Lellis, one of the Church's Patron Saints of: Hospitals, Nurses, Healthcare Workers and the Sick, overcame many challenges, obstacles, human weaknesses and failures, to establish and run an Order of Priests [and eventually Sisters] who ministered to the sick and dying: physically, spiritually, emotionally and psychologically. The habit he adopted was a simple black cassock with a large red cross. [The ICRC's symbol is a red cross on a white field: an inverted flag of Switzerland, in honor of one of its founding members, the Swiss Henry Dunant.] After praying the Collect for Masses on his Feast Day, which is July 18, we will recap the highlights of his amazing story. He died on July 14, which is when most of the world celebrates his Feast Day - but that is also the Feast Day of the first canonized Native American, Saint Kateri Tekakwitha, so his Feast Day is transferred in some places to July 18.

Collect - Saint Camillus de Lellis, Priest

O God, who adorned the Priest Saint Camillus with a singular grace of charity towards the sick, pour out upon us, by his merits, a spirit of love for you, so that, serving you in our neighbor, we may, at the hour of our death, pass safely over to you.

Through our Lord Jesus ... for ever and ever. Amen.

AN UNLIKELY SAINTHOOD CANDIDATE. The future Saint was neglected by his father, a military man who was often off to war; his mother, who was nearly 50 when he was born, kept him away from his hot-tempered father. When Camillus was just 13, his mother died, so he joined his father in the military where he was exposed to, and succumbed to, many vile habits. His worst addiction was to gambling; eventually, he lost everything: savings, weapons, and even the proverbial shirt off his back! He also developed a serious leg infection of unknown causes and

'which never fully healed; its cause may have been a war-wound, disease or accident. It kept him hospitalized for almost a year, but due to his quarrelsome nature, the staff expelled him.

GOD CUT HIM NO CORNERS. Penniless and physically impaired, when Camillus was about 24, he began working as a laborer at a Franciscan monastery, where he was so inspired by one monk's homily that he sought admission as a friar. But due to his past, his physical limitations, and crude personality, they rejected him - not once, not twice, but three times! So, he returned to the hospital that had expelled him to offer his services to care for the sick. As he had experienced as a patient, things were deplorable: the staff had little concern for the sick; little, if any spiritual support was offered to them; and the facilities were filthy. Eventually, as its superintendent, he literally turned the place around!

GOOD ROLE MODELS. Under the guidance of the future Saint John of the Cross and Saint Philip Neri, Camillus, trained for and, at the age of 34, was finally ordained to the Priesthood. Soon after, he began to form his own Religious Order of men whose sole mission was to care for the sick. In addition to the three vows Religious Priests make: Obedience, Chastity and Poverty, he added a fourth vow: they would care for those with infectious diseases, even if it cost them their life! [Diocesan Priests do NOT make vows; they make two Promises: Obedience and Celibacy.

MOVED TO MAKE THINGS BETTER. In 1595, he and His Order - once called the Order of Clerks Regular, Ministers of the Infirm, now known as the Camillians - formed the first recorded military field ambulance! They willingly entered plague-infested galleys to care for the dying. When Camillus learned that some who were mistakenly thought to be dead had been buried alive, he mandated that Prayers for the Dying be offered up to 15 minutes after someone's apparent death.

Saint Camillus de Lellis died on July 14, 1614, was beatified in 1742, and canonized in 1746. He is still an inspiration to those who, at the risk of their own health or life, minister to the sick and dying. Saint Camillus de Lellis, pray for them - and for us!

In Christ,

Father Mark

Religious Education

Have you considered being a Catechist?

Are you willing to grow in faith with others? Won't you consider sharing faith with the young people of our parish? This role helps you to bring these wonderful young people closer to Jesus so they may grow in the faith as Catholics. We are looking for volunteers who would be interested in being a traveling companion to our eighth graders on their faith journey towards the Sacrament of Confirmation. The success of our religious education program is due to the generosity of those who come forward to share faith and love for Jesus. We will provide you with the training, tools and support to assist you in this ministry. If you feel the Lord is calling you, please contact our office at 732-270-3797. All volunteers must be in compliance with the diocesan safe environment program. Therefore, a background check must be conducted and the process is very simple.

Bishop David M. O'Connell, C.M., announces a SPECIAL COLLECTION for the first World Day for Grandparents, Elderly to include special collection for retired, infirm priests

Bishop David M. O'Connell, C.M., has established a new special annual collection that will be held in all parishes July 23 and 24 to benefit the retired, elderly and infirm priests in the Diocese of Trenton. The collection will coincide with the second annual World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, and will be a way for the faithful to support our "spiritual fathers and grandfathers" in the Diocese.

In a message released July 11, Bishop O'Connell explained the need: "Twenty-five years ago, there were 12 retired priests in the Diocese of Trenton. Today there are 75. Five years from now, there will be over 100 retired priests here. We face a shortage of resources to provide for the basic needs of this quickly growing group."

The Bishop further noted that proceeds of the fund will be used for the ongoing operations of Villa Vianney, the Diocese's current retirement facility in Lawrenceville; to look for new properties that can be developed to accommodate the greater number of retired priests, and to provide adequate nursing care for those priests who require it. Bishop O'Connell asks that the clergy and laity of the Diocese respond generously to this new collection in recognition of all these priests have given to the Church, and their place as "treasures in God's family."

*The full text of Bishop O'Connell's message is published in the July issue of The Monitor Magazine and is posted on TrentonMonitor.com (click on Bishop's Corner section).

WHO AM I TO JUDGE? WITH DR. EDWARD SRI - SESSION 1: DON'T IMPOSE YOUR MORALITY ON ME!

What is "right" and "wrong"? Is what's right for you right for me? These are difficult questions to discuss in our culture. We live in a society that supports the opinion that each person should make up his or her own morality, that there is no moral truth that applies to everyone. So, how do we talk about right and wrong in this world? In this series, Dr. Ted Sri explores the fragility of a relativist outlook and the importance of absolute truth.
