MARRIAGE: The Sacrament of Marriage requires a time of spiritual preparation. According to the Common Policy adopted by the Bishops of New Jersey, this preparation requires attendance at a marriage preparation program (Pre-Canan) as well as sessions with the parish deacon or priest. Therefore, couples should make arrangements at the Parish Office one year before the planned wedding date and before finalizing any social plans.

MISSION STATEMENT: The goal of Saint Justin the Martyr Parish is that each member grow in the Grace through Jesus Christ, and in so doing cooperate with the Holy Spirit in giving glory to God, in experiencing the salvation of their soul, and in building up the Body of Christ.

THE BREAD OF LIFE DISCOURSE. For the next 2 weeks, our Responsorial Psalm will come from Psalm 34 with the same refrain sung each week: "Taste and see the goodness of the Lord." We will also hear the Leader of Song or Cantor sing most of its 23 verses. In the Revised New American Bible, it has the heading, "[a Psalm of] Thanksgiving to God Who Delivers the Just." In its original language, it is an acrostic hymn, which means each verse begins with the next progressive letter of the alphabet, to suggest precision, perfection and complete totality.

Its refrain, "Taste and see," reminds us of God's willingness to condescend to our lowly level. For we, who can only 'know' something through our senses: our eyes and ears, nose, hands and mouth, would not 'know' God or His grace had He not 'stooped' to our level so we can taste and see, hear and touch - even smell - His presence. God humbles Himself so that through tangible, ordinary signs we can experience the intangible and extraordinary reality of His presence!

Some jokingly, and some derogatorily, refer to Catholic and other 'high Church' Rites with rhythmic words that claim these Rites make us "the Church of yells, bells and smells." On this 3rd of a 5-week consecutive proclamation of the 6th Chapter of John's Gospel: the Bread of Life Discourse, during the 3-year National Eucharistic Revival, our August bulletin articles have Eucharistic themes. Today it's the outward signs used in Sacred Liturgy to better comprehend and 'hand on' and proclaim the God we cannot see with the things we can sense or experience.

YELLS. On very rare occasions [in my experience] a Music Minister has provided ample penance for every sin I've committed - or even considered committing, and there can be some horrendous 'hooting and hollering' at Revival-type Services. But we usually "Shout joyfully to the LORD" [Psalm 100:1] when we raise our voices in song. And contrary to what some sourpusses say, "Music adds so much to the holy Mass ... about 15 minutes" ... we do a good job fulfilling Saint

Paul's biblical mandate to sing to the Lord in "psalms and hymns and spiritual songs." [Ephesians 5:19]

BELLS. The Roman Missal states: "A little before the Consecration, if appropriate, a minister rings a small bell as a signal to the faithful. The minister also rings the small bell at each elevation by the Priest, according to local custom." [GIRM #150] These 'bells' alert people to look to the Altar, where Christ is about to become truly present. This was essential when Priests had their backs to the people, who prayed the Rosary or other devotions as they 'privately' prayed the Eucharistic Prayer. Hopefully, everyone now actively participates by paying attention and by singing the three Acclamations: the Sanctus, Mystery of Faith and Amen. There is something to be said about sacred silence.

SMELLS. Some love the smell of sacred chrism. [Bishops add a balsam perfume to the oil before consecrating Sacred Chrism.] The aroma of Chrism wafts throughout the church as Confirmation is conferred. I was unprepared when people grabbed and kissed my newly anointed hands after my Priesthood Ordination.

The smell some love, and some hate, is incense, which is even used in non-Christian Rites; many religions use incense and other scents in worship. In biblical images of heaven, God's throne is engulfed in clouds of it: "Each of the [24] elders [around the throne] held a harp and gold bowls filled with incense, which are the prayers of the holy ones. [Revelation 5:8] An Angel uses it to present our intentions to the Lord: "The smoke of the incense along with the prayers of the holy ones went up before God from the hand of the angel." [8:4] We use it to reverence Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist, at the Altar, in the Ordained and then in all the Baptized, in icons, statues and other sacred symbols, and even our body or cremains at our funeral.

Not to sound 'hokey-pokey,' but we are expected to throw our whole selves in when we worship: mind and heart and soul - as well as our senses: sight and sound, smell and touch, and above all, taste. For by taste, our Eucharistic Lord literally enters into us as our 'Food for the Journey!'

In Christ,

Father Mark

MISSION APPEAL 2024 THE WEEKEND OF AUGUST 10TH AND 11TH

ARCHDIOCESE OF ONITSHA, NIGERIA

Preacher: Rev. Fr. Charles C. Muorah, PhD., STL, PGDE, LMFT Fr. Charles Muorah originally ordained for Onitsha Archdiocese, serving in Trenton Diocese since 2001 and incardinated into the Diocese of Trenton in 2011, is preaching the 2024 Mission Cooperation plan between Trenton Diocese and Onitsha Archdiocese, Nigeria.

The Church of Onitsha Archdiocese is in the east coast of Nigeria. Nigeria is the largest country in Africa with a population of about 220+ million people. Nigeria is approximately three times the size of Germany. Nigeria is about 55% Christian & the east coast is approximately 98% Christians. Onitsha Archdiocese has a geographical area of 536.9 square miles and a population of about 2.2 million people; Catholics are about 1.9 million.

The Church of Onitsha Archdiocese is blessed with rich vocations to the priesthood and religious life. It has 425 priests, 20 deacons to be ordained priest this year, and 132 seminarians. During his pastoral visit to Nigeria in February 1982, Pope John Paul II now a saint directed the Archbishop of Onitsha to start sending priests on mission to other parts of the world. Today, about 45 priests from the archdiocese serve in different parts of Nigeria, six in other dioceses in Africa, 27 in Europe, 63 in North America and about 15 in different parts of Asia. In the recent times, there is a renewed systematic attack on Christians by the Muslim radicals, especially the Boko Haram. Your generous gift will empower the Church of Onitsha Archdiocese to continue with its mission of defending the Christian faith and addressing the humanitarian crisis being generated by this modern form of persecutions of the Church and Christians. Part of the contribution will also fund the training of future priests and hospital projects.
