Collections are vital to our existence as a Parish. If your circumstances permit, please consider donating to the parish at this time. I am thankful and grateful for your continued financial support to help us meet our weekly and monthly expenses. Many mail their contributions in and continue to do so. Here are some ways for you to help your parish:

- Place your offering in the receptacles at the doors as you enter or leave church.
- Mail in your envelopes weekly/monthly.
- Have your bank send us weekly/monthly check automatically from your checking account made out to St. Justin Church with your envelope number on the check to get proper credit. Thank you for giving the above some consideration to help support your parish financially, and know it is greatly appreciated!

THE BREAD OF LIFE DISCOURSE For the second of three weeks, our Responsorial Psalm is from Psalm 34 with the same refrain sung each weekend: "Taste and see the goodness of the Lord." along with a few of its 23 verses. This week we will focus on one word: TASTE. To TASTE something, we must eat it - which we usually do by putting it in our mouth, chewing it, and swallowing it. While it may seem silly to point out the obvious, the history of our 'rules' for consuming the Eucharistic food is fascinating!

Those my age and older might recall the dread we experienced when the paper-thin white wafer suddenly cleaved to the roof of our mouth. We would risk choking to death rather than break the 11th Commandment: "Thou shall not touch the Host, lest you die!" And even God could not help the pitiable child who was seen chewing a Host; "You are breaking our Lord's bones!" some were told to their utter horror. To my limited knowledge, there was never a Church Law forbidding us to chew or touch the Host!

DOCTRINE OR DISCIPLINE. It helps to know the difference between Church dogmas, which never change, and disciplines, which do change. An analogy may help: Michelangelo's Pieta never changes; however, our understanding of, and appreciation for, his masterpiece deepens and grows the more we admire, ponder, or study it. So, too, with the Eucharist. What the Church declares as dogma has always been; but when it is questioned or misinterpreted, or as we come to deeper awareness and understanding, she redefines it with new doctrines and dogmas.

Disciplines address practices, not theological issues. For instance, Saint Paul was so alarmed by unruly behavior at the Lord's Supper [some were 'partying' too much!] that he wrote: "When you meet ... it is not to eat the Lord's supper, for in eating, each one goes ahead with his own supper, and one goes hungry while another gets drunk. Do you not have houses in which you can eat and drink? [1 Corinthians 11:20-22a] So, although the First Mass at the Last Supper was during a full Passover Meal, his new 'discipline' separated the regular meal from what we call the holy Mass!

Originally, Holy Communion was received in the hand or on the tongue; in 384, Saint Cyril of Jerusalem prescribed how to properly receive in the hand, which we mostly still follow. Some places mandated reception on the tongue only as far back at the 800's, but in the 1200's, Saint Thomas Aquinas, alarmed by those who rejected the Eucharist as Christ's Real Presence, taught that only the consecrated fingers of the Priest could touch the consecrated Host. In the current Ordination Rite, my HANDS were consecrated, not just my two thumbs and two index fingers.

There were, and still may be, some Priests who will not turn pages, touch anything, etc., with these four fingers until all possible fragments of the Host are purified after Holy Communion. Surely, I would never desecrate the Blessed Sacrament, but some 'disciplines,' in my opinion, go, or went too far. By the same token, I am also alarmed by the casual, almost mindless way some present themselves for Holy Communion. May this National Eucharistic Revival help us all to better appreciate and to more consciously respect the great gift of Christ's Body and Blood.

LEAVENED OR UNLEAVENED. At a Passover meal, only unleavened bread may be used; the Roman Catholic Church has kept that tradition. Eastern Rite Churches, like Byzantine Catholics, use leavened bread. It had been also permitted in the Roman Church for centuries, but for uniformity, the current 'discipline' is to only use unleavened bread. Current Roman Catholic Church rubrics require that the Eucharistic bread be unleavened; recently made; with the appearance of food; large enough that others can share in the Host consumed by the Priest. We use whole wheat wafers of various sizes; in any case, small, individual hosts are permissible.

Since Jesus told us to "take and eat" ... "take and drink," I strive to make the Eucharistic elements as 'food-like' as permissible. Yet, some still say, "It tastes like cardboard!" - though I highly doubt they are actually 'cardboard connoisseurs' who know what cardboard tastes like! May we all pay far more attention to WHO comes into us through these elements than in what these elements are - or what they taste like!

In Christ,

Father Mark
