According to the Common Policy adopted by the Bishops of New Jersey, this preparation requires attendance at a marriage preparation program (Pre-Cana) as well as sessions with the parish deacon or priest. Therefore, couples should make arrangements at the Parish Office one year before the planned wedding date and before finalizing any social plans.

MISSION STATEMENT: The goal of Saint Justin the Martyr Parish is that each member grow in the Grace through Jesus Christ, and in so doing cooperate with the Holy Spirit in giving glory to God, in experiencing the salvation of their soul, and in building up the Body of Christ.

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time - A
September 17, 2023

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE EIGHTH DAY. The 13th and final reflection on Pope Francis' 2022 Apostolic Letter, 'Desiderio Desideravi', Latin for Jesus' pre-Last Supper words: "I have earnestly desired [to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.]" [Luke 22:15] focuses on the significance of our weekly Sunday celebration. For past articles in this series on the three-year National Eucharistic Revival [this is article #42!] and the Holy Father's Letter, visit our Parish website.

WHAT IS THE 'EIGHTH DAY'? Some ask why the Church changed the Sabbath Day to Sunday, and where did she get the authority to alter God's Commandment. The simple answer is we did not change the Sabbath Day to Sunday; the Risen Lord, whom Saint Thomas called "My Lord and my God," did! Since Apostolic times, the Church has continued to gather each week on Sunday: the day the Risen Lord first appeared to the Apostles; the day He Broke Bread with those two disciples on the Road to Emmaus; the day the Holy Spirit descended upon the Infant Church. With the old creation's sin and death finally conquered and vanquished by Christ, the first day of the week became 'the Eighth Day' or the first day of the new creation ushered in by the Risen Lord!

Thus, the pattern for us to follow was set! We start each week by gathering as One Body: the Church, so we can listen to One Message: God's Word, and partake of One Meal: the Body and Blood of Christ, so that we can be sent forth as One Body. Then, having depleted the graces and strength we receive from Word and Sacrament, we return to be reinforced with another dose of heavenly grace as we continue on our earthly journey. And some people think they are just 'fulfilling the obligation' by 'going to Mass' and 'receiving Holy Communion!' The reality is: we are building God's Kingdom on Earth ... by sharing in the Bread of Angels, who came down from heaven to save us: the Bread of Life!

The Holy Father concludes his Letter by calling all Ordained Priests, who accept the great privilege and awesome responsibility to lead the Sacred Mysteries, to faithfully fulfill their duties. He reminds my priestly brothers and me to never stop learning why we do what we do, and to internalize and strive to fully imitate the Sacred Mysteries we conduct day after day. And he implores the people whom we serve to pray for and support their 'spiritual fathers' by also coming to a deeper knowledge of - and greater appreciation for - the Sacred Rites of our Faith.

Pope Francis then cites the primary place where all this truly comes alive: in the Eucharistic Prayer during which the Consecration takes place. He notes that, while most the Assembly takes part in the Eucharistic Prayer by their reverent silence and an occasional acclamation, the Priest who presides NEEDS their intercession so that he may fulfill his part. And he [and his brother Priests who concelebrate with him] must truly become what he renders by the gift of Ordination: he, too, must become the 'Body broken' and 'Blood outpoured' for the salvation of the world - which he cannot do without your help! So, as you rely on me and my brother Priests in our ministry, we rely on you and your prayers for us!

It was, and is, the hope of His Holiness - and mine - that his Letter, these reflections, and above all, this three-year National Eucharistic Revival, will help us all better know and live by the great gift of Eucharist, so readily available to us, week after week, even day after day, at holy Mass. Each one of us must ask ourselves: what will I do to better understand, participate in, and benefit from, the Sacred Mysteries of our Faith? How can I become a more attentive, more active, more appreciative member of Christ's Body, His Church? What will I do to invite into - or welcome back - those who do not worship Sunday after Sunday?

One final plea: pray for more local Vocations to the Priesthood, especially from our own Parish and Diocese, so that the holy Mass can be offered in ways that we can more easily join in and understand. Pray for the health and stamina of the men who serve us now. And ask the Master of the Harvest to bring to eternal rest those who, while they lived on earth, fed us with food from heaven during their Priestly Ministry!

In Christ,

Rev. Mark A. Kreder, Pastor

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 17TH, 2023

This year Catechetical Sunday's theme is "Come to me all you who labor and are burdened" (Matthew 11:28).

Catholics hear these powerful words spoken by Jesus as an invitation to follow him and have our burdens lightened. The role of the catechist, first and foremost, is to be close to Jesus as a disciple and secondarily to be a witness and accompany others.

We take this opportunity to thank our parents/guardians and all volunteers who are accompanying the youth and adults of this parish on their new journey of faith this year.

Please hold all who have answered the call, and all those in faith formation in your prayers.

St. Vincent de Paul Society Food Pantry

Foods most needed this month are: 48oz bottles of Fruit Juices, canned fruit of any kind, canned chicken, cans of chili with beans, canned potato's or canned yams. On behalf of the clients visiting the Food Pantry (over 1,000 in August) we thank you for your generous donations and support, and pray that God will bless each of you as you have blessed so many others. Thank you.

Our St. Vincent de Paul Society Food Collection is the 3rd Sunday of the month. The Food Collection basket is located in the narthex by the parish hall. The food is taken to St. Joseph's Food Pantry where they have the distribution center.

The St. Vincent de Paul Conference of St. Justin the Martyr Church located in Toms River is asking you to prayerfully consider joining our ministry.

We need your help. We are in need of people to, one day a week, from the presence of your home, screen calls of those in need of help. The St. Vincent de Paul ministry helps our neighbors in the eastern section of Toms River as well as the barrier island.

There is an in person training on Saturday, September 30, 2023.

If you have any questions, and to leave your name & number if you are interested in helping, please leave a message on our Helpline at 732-929-1119. Thank you for prayerfully considering joining this important ministry to serve God's people.

Padre Pio: Miracle Man

This movie captures the Capuchin friar's intense faith, devotion, and deep spiritual concern for others, as well as his great compassion for the sick and suffering. It reveals the amazing details and events in Padre Pio's life as a boy and throughout his fifty years as a friar, dramatizing the frequent attacks from the devil, as well as the persecution he suffered at the hands of people, including those in the Church.
