NOVEMBER IS THE MONTH OF ALL SOULS.

In the second of our five-part Month of All Souls series on the Prayers for the Dead,
We reflect on the ninth set of orations the Church provides for Masses for Several Deceased or All the Dead. May these hope-filled prayers, this weekend's annual Mass of Remembrance during which we honor those buried from our Parish from October 1, 2020 to September 30, 2021, and the enshrinement of our All Souls Memorials, bring comfort and peace to the living and the dead. Contact the Parish Office to have a loved one listed as a Mass Intention. Use the envelope in your packets or any envelope to enroll your departed loved ones in our All Souls Memorial and return to the Office ASAP. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Collect - For Several Deceased Persons/All the Dead-9

Almighty ever-living God, to whom we never pray without hope of your mercy,
be gracious to your servants [N. and N.],
who departed this life confessing your name,
and admit them to the company of your Saints.
Through our Lord Jesus ... for ever and ever. Amen.

HOPE IN GOD'S MERCY. God not only spoke to Moses; the Lord even graced him with a passing peek at His Glory. First, after explaining how no sinner can see God's face and live, God assured Moses He would cover his face with His hand until He passed by. After doing so, Moses heard God proclaim, "The LORD, the LORD, a God gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in love and fidelity, continuing his love for a thousand generations, and forgiving wickedness, rebellion, and sin; yet not declaring the guilty guiltless, but bringing punishment for their parents' wickedness on children and children's children to the third and fourth generation!" [Exodus 34:6-7]. Therein lies our bold hope that - eventually - perhaps only at the end of time - ALL repentant sinners, all those atoned for by the offerings made by others on their behalf, above all, by the self-sacrifice Jesus made to save all sinners - will see the face of God ... and LIVE!

Prayer over the Offerings - Several/All the Dead - 9

Lord God, whose Son offered himself to you as a living oblation, accept, we pray, the sacrifice of your Church, that your servants [N. and N.], freed from all sins,
may merit to attain the prize of immortality.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

YOU GOTTA PLAY TO WIN. Although we can do nothing to 'deserve' anything from God, for everything from God is a gift or grace, we can - and must - do all we can to 'merit' what God offers. However, our 'works' do not 'earn' us anything from God; our 'works' prove that our faith is alive and active. And if Jesus "appointed [us] to go and bear fruit that will remain." [John 15:16] and the purpose of our 'fruit' is to feed and nourish ourselves AND OTHERS, we believe Jesus would allow our prayers and sacrifices to benefit even those who did not 'play to win' as the saying goes. So, pray for those who did not pray, or 'play' "to attain the prize of immortality."

Prayer after Communion - Several/All the Dead - 9

May the Sacrament we have received purify us, almighty and merciful God, and grant, we pray,
that this sacrifice may be for us
a plea for pardon, strength for the weak, a stronghold in all danger; and may it be for the living and the dead remission of all their sins and the pledge of eternal redemption.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

"AND HE SHALL PURIFY." A repetitive line in Handel's classic oratorio, 'Messiah,' "And he shall purify.", comes from the last Old Testament Book; first, the Prophet Malachi fearfully references our dreaded eventual meeting with our Maker: "But who can endure the day of his coming? Who can stand firm when he appears?" [C.f.: Malachi 3:1-3]. Then he assures us that God will offer us the ways by which we can be purified. However, unlike God, who is eternal and immortal, we need some means by which we can apply all God offers to those who are bound to time and space. We find that in the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, which we can offer for ourselves and for others, living and dead. What do you do to be purified and to help others be purified?

In Christ,

Father Mark

with your generous donations?

For years we supported a food pantry here at the parish.
A few years ago, we joined our food pantry with that of Many of our members continue to volunteer to staff the pantry and your donations of food and money support this necessary work.

The Society helps those with back rent or housing bills in

Healing the Wounds of Abortion

The psychological and spiritual wounds of abortion can be sharp, deep and crippling. You may feel a deep numbness and may not be able to name the pain or recognize any of the symptoms. It can also have a devastating impact on the father or grandparents of the aborted child and friend/s of the mother.

Rachel's Vineyard's Retreat is a chance to focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive non-judgmental process, in an atmosphere of confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. It is designed to help both women and men experience the mercy and compassion of God. If you have suffered through an abortion and have isolated yourself from healing and forgiveness, you might consider attending one our retreat weekends.
