MARRIAGE: The Sacrament of Marriage requires a time of spiritual preparation. According to the Common Policy adopted by the Bishops of New Jersey, this preparation requires attendance at a marriage preparation program (Pre-Cana) as well as sessions with the parish deacon or priest. Therefore, couples should make arrangements at the Parish Office one year before the planned wedding date and before finalizing any social plans.

MISSION STATEMENT: The goal of Saint Justin the Martyr Parish is that each member grow in the Grace through Jesus Christ, and in so doing cooperate with the Holy Spirit in giving glory to God, in experiencing the salvation of their soul, and in building up the Body of Christ.

MORE ON EUCHARISTIC ADORATION. In part 15 of our series on The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church US Bishops' document, we explain the Order of Eucharistic Adoration. Past articles on this Revival, the whole document, and a video of the talk on the Eucharist are on our Parish website: stjustin.org; click on National Eucharistic Bulletin Articles.

Pope Francis on Eucharistic Adoration [June 14, 2020]

“Let us also rediscover Eucharistic adoration, which continues the work of the Mass within us; this will do us much good, for it heals us within. Especially now, when our need is so great.”

PREPARING FOR EUCHARISTIC ADORATION. As an official Rite, Church rubrics govern Eucharistic Adoration. If Adoration immediately follows Mass, the Host to be adored should be consecrated at that Mass. Before Mass, all that may be needed is set up on a credence or side table: a Corporal; Monstrance; Thurible with charcoal; Boat with grains of Incense; Lighter or Matches; extra Candles; Humeral Veil; optional Cope and Canopy; and the often-forgotten Key to the Tabernacle!

CORPORAL. The small, often square white linen cloth, unfolded on Altars during the Offertory, is left on the Altar after Holy Communion - or one is placed there if Adoration does NOT follow Mass.

TABOR. A stand, placed on a Corporal, which holds up the Monstrance, may be used. Its name refers to the site of the Transfiguration: Mount Tabor. The synoptic Gospels [Matthew 17:1-9; Mark 9:2-9; Luke 9:28-36] record how Jesus was ‘transfigured’ or revealed in all His glory with Moses and Elijah. A Tabor recalls His lofty, elevated state, so it may resemble a throne.

MONSTRANCE. In the ‘simple’ form of Adoration, a Ciborium with the reserved Eucharist is placed on the Altar and no Tabor is used. Otherwise, a Monstrance is placed side-ways on the side of the Altar. After a Host, in a Lunette or small glass pyx, is slid into it, it is placed in the center of the Altar, facing the people, atop a Corporal or a Tabor.

HUMERAL VEIL. Ordained Ministers wear a shawl-like vestment called a Humeral Veil to retrieve/return the Lunette from/to the Tabernacle; to move the Monstrance and give the Eucharistic Blessing. If there is a Procession, he may wear a Cope or festive cape; if the Procession goes outdoors, he may walk under a Canopy, held up by poles by any suitable Minister.

LIGHTED CANDLES. Every religion seems to use Lighted Candles in its rituals; even secular rites - like birthday parties and the Olympics - call for lit candles on the cake or a torch. At the Child Jesus' Presentation in the Temple, the Prophet Simeon proclaimed Him “a light for revelation to the Gentiles” [Luke 2:32] and Jesus proclaimed: “I am the light of the world.” [John 8:12] - so Lighted Candles are most significant for us Christians. In the ‘simple’ form of Adoration, in a Ciborium, FOUR Lighted Candles are used; and SIX Lighted Candles are used when adored in a Monstrance. Some surround the Blessed Sacrament with a ‘crown’ of Lighted Candles. [The often-forgotten Lighter or Matches are also essential!]

BOAT WITH INCENSE & THURIBLE. A small container called a ‘Boat’ holds the grains of Incense; a small spoon is used to transfer some onto hot charcoals. Thuribles also vary in style and shape; sometimes a bowl with incense in it is placed before the Blessed Sacrament rather than - or in addition to - the use of a swinging Thurible. There are many biblical references to the use of Incense. God told Moses to build an Altar of Incense, which burned in the Temple's Holy of Holies. On a ‘practical’ level, it overpowered the odors from animal offerings and other stench; but it also had a ‘spiritual’ purpose. The rising of the smoke of the Incense symbolizes our prayers ascending to God. And as we ‘enter’ a cloud of Incense, or rather, as it engulfs us, we symbolically ‘enter into’ or are ‘embraced by’ God's presence!

As we reflect on - and deepen our knowledge of - Eucharistic Adoration and this Eucharistic Revival - may we better appreciate and benefit from this great Gift to whom “we pledge our hearts’ oblation” [from the hymn: ‘To Jesus Christ, Our Sovereign King’] on this Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. For His Real Presence is as close to us as the next holy Mass or the nearest Tabernacle! Happy Thanksgiving!

In Christ

AN EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE BASED ON THE TWO GREAT COMMANDMENTS

The Lord said: “You shall love the Lord your God with your whole heart.”

Do I put my relationship with God first, above all things:
my career and leisure time, my home and possessions - even above other people?

Do I allow the Lord to be my loving Father by entrusting
all my joys and sorrows to God?

Do I leave God out of my life
by not making time for regular private prayer
or for worshipping with other Christians?

Do I rely on God’s grace to avoid temptation
and on the Church to restore me to grace?

Do I make important choices or decisions without first listening - as God speaks to me through prayer and Scripture, Church teaching and sacred liturgy?

Do I heed God’s call to be a temple of His Spirit, an instrument of His grace,
and channel of His loving forgiveness?

Do I truly become what I receive:
the Body and Blood of Christ?

Do I act on my faith by allowing God and Church
teaching to influence what I say and do, how I vote,
form my values and my conscience?

Do I offer back to the Lord and His Church
what God has entrusted to me: my time, talents,
and the treasures I earn through the blessings
and abilities God freely gives to me?

The Lord says
“You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

Do I hurt or neglect my family,
or withhold love from those closest to me?

Am I too guarded or afraid to reach out,
too withdrawn in my own pursuits to hear
and respond to the needs of others?

Do I argue too easily, deliberately hurt others,
fail to ask for forgiveness, express my apologies,
or take responsibility for my mistakes?

Do I withhold forgiveness or hold grudges,
or demand from others what I refuse to them?

Do I hurt or neglect my friends or neighbors,
my fellow parishioners or co-workers,
my fellow citizens in this country?

Do I respect people of every race or language,
nation or way of life?

Do I strive to be a peacemaker,
or do I add more fuel to the fire?

Do I speak up for the rights of others, or do I remain mute and inactive in the face of injustice, falsehood, prejudice or apathy.

Do I defend and uphold the dignity of every person,
born or unborn, young or old, polite or demanding,
friend or enemy, healthy or sick,
self-sufficient or needy?

Do I lead others to - or away from -
God and His Church - by my words or example?

Am I known for my honesty and integrity,
faithfulness to my word and Christian values?

Christ our Lord says:
“Be perfect as your Father is perfect.”

Do I take care of my body and my soul
by exercising and eating properly,
controlling my desires and feelings?

Do I engage in regular times of prayer,
read the Bible and meditate on it?

Do I patiently accept sorrows and disappointments,
and ‘offer them up’ so as to “fill up
what is lacking in the sufferings of Christ?”

Do I maintain sensible boundaries and limitations
so as not to damage my health or the wellbeing of others?

Do I keep my promises and vows, especially those made before God and His Church in Baptism and Confirmation, Matrimony and Holy Orders?

Do I practice the spiritual disciplines of prayer, fasting,
and almsgiving, of devotions and sacred customs?

Do I dishonor my own body - or the body of anyone else - in any way?

Do I protect myself from what could bring me harm
in the marketplace and recreational places,
in the media and on the internet?

Do I strive to live by Christian ideals,
relying on the presence of God within me,
or am I enslaved to any ungodly forces?
