EUCARISTIC REVIVAL. This is part 16 of our series on the USA's Bishops' document The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church. Past articles on this Revival, the whole document, and a video of the talk at our Parish on the Eucharist, are on our Parish website: stjustin.org; click on Eucharistic Revival Articles.

A quote from the Common Preface IV

"For, although you have no need of our praise,
yet our thanksgiving is itself your gift,
since our praises add nothing to your greatness
but profit us for salvation."

EUCARIST MEANS THANKSGIVING. This weekend, as we continue to celebrate the secular Feast of Thanksgiving, we take a break from a 10 - part reflection on Eucharist Adoration Outside of Mass [next week is the last one] and return to a 'walk-through' explanation of the above-mentioned Bishops' document. We left off, back on September 18, with a series of articles on Part I: Eucharist as THE GIFT; now we move onto Part II: OUR RESPONSE. And as our parents [hopefully!] taught us from an early age: our RESPONSE to receiving a GIFT must be to express our THANKS.

EVERYTHING IS A GIFT FROM GOD. First, we must begin by admitting that All is a GIFT: our life, our world, and everything in it! For only God can create from nothing; so ultimately, everything is a gift that must be used as God, the Gift-Giver, intended. We use the word 'grace' for all the unearned, unpaid for, undeserved, and unmerited gifts God so freely gives us. What does God ask in return for His countless, gracious gifts?

A verse from the hymn 'All Good Gifts' sums it up perfectly: "And all that we can offer, your boundless love imparts; the gifts to you most pleasing are humble, thankful hearts." Once our hearts are moved by such a sense of gratitude, the rest of our body must follow. We must love as Christ loves; give as totally and as freely as Christ gives; seek to strive to know and to do the Father's will as Christ did. And when we are NOT like Christ, we must seek God's pardon and forgiveness for forgetting we are stewards or caretakers - not owners - of God's gracious gifts.

The holy Mass is the greatest act of thanksgiving, since through it, we offer back to God His greatest Gift to us: our Lord Jesus Christ, truly present in the Eucharist - so our regular, active participation at holy Mass is essential. For as the psalmist asks, "How can I repay the LORD for all the great good done for me? I will raise the cup of salvation and call on the name of the LORD." [Psalm 116:12-13] No wonder the Church makes this the Psalm we sing at Holy Thursday's Mass of the Lord's Supper, for we best fulfill this command by following the Lord Jesus' example and command to "do this [the Eucharist] in memory of me." [Luke 22:19]

The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church document then makes two points. 1] As the 1960's Second Vatican Council stated: to properly give thanks for the Eucharist, everyone should "take a full, conscious, and active part in the liturgical celebration." This means that we must be conscious of what we are doing, what is happening, and Who is present in the sacred mysteries. We must also engage our minds, our hearts, and our bodies by joining in the communal actions of sitting, standing, kneeling, bowing, other gestures - and in moments of silence. We must actively listen to the prayers and the homily, join in singing hymns, reciting creeds and other prayers - even if we have said them or have heard them - countless times before.

The document calls every Ordained and Lay Minister who leads or serves at holy Mass to remember that they are servants, not owners, of liturgical Rites. One of the reasons the clergy wear special vestments is to help us - and you - remember it is not us personally who do or say all we do or say - but Christ who, by our Ordination, works in and through us. As Pope Francis recently wrote to the Bishops of the world: "I ask you to be vigilant in ensuring that every liturgy be celebrated with decorum and fidelity to the liturgical books promulgated after Vatican Council II, without the eccentricities that can easily degenerate into abuses." It then calls for the ongoing formation of clergy and laity who serve in any liturgical role so we can more closely achieve every liturgical ideal. How can we better offer our thanksgiving to the Lord than when we gather for the Most Holy Eucharist?

In Christ

Before coming to Confession, use an 'Examen' [below] to examine your conscience. Begin with your state in life [i.e., married, single, parent, etc.] and approximate time since your last Confession; list all grave, serious, major [mortal] sins by number and kind; a general admission of sinfulness suffices for less serious [venial] sins: i.e., impatience, intolerance, stinginess, lack of charity, forgiveness, etc. After the Priest offers a penance, listen to the Prayer of Absolution; pray the Act of Contrition AFTER you leave.

A BIBLICAL EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE

"The LORD God ... called to the man and asked him:
‘Where are you?’

He answered, 'I heard you in the garden;
but I was afraid, because I was naked, so I hid.'
[Genesis 3:9-10]

Am I growing in my capacity for truly loving, honest
and mutually-respectful relationships?

Am I honest with myself? Am I honest with those
I love? Am I honest with God?

Do I need to grow in courage, and in my ability to deal with conflict in honest, respectful and constructive ways?

Am I so afraid of God - or of what He asks of me -
that I try to hide from the LORD
or from the Church's rites and rituals?

Am I a respectful, dependable person,
in whom others see another Christ?

Do I think of my activity - family, work, leisure - as ways to serve God and bring God's presence into the world?

"*LORD, you have probed me, you know me:
you know when I sit and stand; you understand my thoughts from afar. You formed my inmost being;
you knit me in my mother's womb.
My very self you know.*" [Psalm 139:1-2, 13, 14b]

Do I misuse the gifts God has entrusted to me:
All my talents? All my treasure? All my knowledge?
All my abilities and skills?

Do I use God's gift of my sexuality for manipulation or pleasure rather than an expression of mature, committed, monogamous love?

Have I taken seriously God's personal call to me - to be holy - to be His child in every sense of the word -
by participating weekly in the Sunday Eucharist
and other religious services?

Have I taken the time to pray
and to allow God's love to touch me?

Am I aware of the sacredness of earth and life;
do I build my life upon that awareness?

Do I avail myself to the sacramental grace
that comes to us in the Most Holy Eucharist
and in Confession, Penance or Reconciliation?

*"As the Father loves me, so I also love you.
Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments,
you will remain in my love."*
[John 15:9-10a]

Do I do all I can to bring Christ's compassion
and justice into my little part of the world,
through all I say and do?

Do I have a genuine love and concern for others?
Or have I hardened my heart toward certain people,
or refused to reach out to those whom I have hurt?

Am I living a life committed to justice?
Do I participate actively in community and political life,
making all my decisions according to the Gospel?

Have I succumbed to prejudice, bigotry
or any form of degradation of people?

Am I growing in my capacity for steadfast
and committed love: of myself, of my family
and of my friends?

Am I also growing in my capacity for steadfast and committed love for the poorest and for the most rejected, in whom God is also present?

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF SIN

Loving God, your mercy is our hope:
welcome us to the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
Make us a living sign of your love for all to see:
people reconciled with you and with each other.

Make us grow in your peace:
and seek to spread it throughout the world.

In forgiving our sins help us to love others
and to forgive their sins against us.

Give light to our darkness:
and lead us by your truth.

In your mercy free us from the past:
and enable us to begin a new life of holiness.

Overcome the harm our sinfulness has brought us:
and guide us back into the ways of love and peace.
