WEEKEND: Saturday Evening Vigil: 5:00PM
Sunday: 8:00AM; 9:30AM; 11:30am

WEEKDAY: Monday-Thursday:8:00AM

Holy Days: Announced

BAPTISM: Parents are required to attend a Baptism Preparation Session. Godparents/Sponsors are invited and strongly encouraged to attend. Please call the Parish Office as early as possible to make arrangements.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION:

Confession will be Saturdays from 3:30pm to 4:00pm. Outside the door of the church on the side of the Religious Education Building. Kindly knock on the door, remain outside for Confession. Please arrive at 3:30.

Adult R.C.I.A. program: Contact Parish Office
Children R.C.I.A. program: Contact Religious Education

MARRIAGE: The Sacrament of Marriage requires a time of spiritual preparation. According to the Common Policy adopted by the Bishops of New Jersey, this preparation requires attendance at a marriage preparation program (Pre-Cana) as well as sessions with the parish deacon or priest. Therefore, couples should make arrangements at the Parish Office one year before the planned wedding date and before finalizing any social plans.

MISSION STATEMENT: The goal of Saint Justin the Martyr Parish is that each member grow in the Grace through Jesus Christ, and in so doing cooperate with the Holy Spirit in giving glory to God, in experiencing the salvation of their soul, and in building up the Body of Christ.

ORATIONS: EUCHARISTIC ADORATION.

In part 17 of our series on The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church US Bishops' document, We're reflecting on the 1st of the 7 prayers used to end Benediction. Past articles on this Revival, the whole document, and a video of a talk on the Eucharist, are on our Parish website: stjustin.org; click on Eucharistic Revival Articles.

Eucharistic Adoration - Closing Prayer #1 of 7

Lord Jesus Christ, you gave us the Eucharist as the memorial of your suffering and death.

May our worship of this sacrament of your body and blood help us to experience the salvation you won for us and the peace of the kingdom where you live with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

HOW CAN WE 'WORSHIP' A SACRAMENT? Contrary to the charge often leveled against Catholics, that we 'worship' Angels and Saints, statues and icons, and the 'Queen of Heaven' who was a pagan fertility goddess to whom ancient Israelites offered sacrifice and worshipped [Jeremiah 7:18] - we ONLY worship God. However, we do revere, honor, and respect our Blessed Mother, [her title, 'Queen of Heaven,' has NOTHING to do with a pagan goddess!], the Angels and Saints. And while we celebrate Sacraments, we DO WORSHIP one: the Most Blessed Sacrament, because it is Christ's Real Presence par excellence! A timely analogy may help explain how this is true.

Christmas customs can deeply touch us. Some serenely smile and get teary-eyed as the Christ Child's statue is carried to the Crèche, as is our Parish custom, in a Candlelight Procession during Christmas Mass. Stony hearts melt as children piously play their parts in our Epiphany Pageant. Some are even moved by The Radio City Christmas Spectacular's live Nativity Scene. However, if our hearts and minds are more moved by Jesus represented in a resin or plastic, ceramic, wood or golden statue - or in a roleplay - than by His Real Presence, in the form of bread and wine, in the Eucharist - something is terribly wrong!

When the Risen Lord called the then-fanatical Pharisee Saul, who was hellbent on destroying the infant Church, Jesus said, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?" He said, "Who are you, sir?" The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting." [Acts 9:4-5] Then Saul, whose name was changed to Paul, Saint Paul, was baptized and came to understand how the Church is the Body of Christ present in the world. And, in time, he came to believe that the Bread and Wine, blessed, broken and shared, is also Christ's Body and Blood. The National Eucharistic Revival seeks to help us capture or re-capture, discover or re-discover, understand or better understand, the mystery of Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist.

Again, as we said in a previous bulletin article, when we go to a museum or art show, we miss out on so much - unless we have a knowledgeable guide with a trained eye who can help us 'see' the 'whole picture.' The same is true of the Church's Sacraments, Rites, and dogmas. To help us 'see' more deeply into the full meaning of the Eucharist, the Church did our 'homework' for us! She scoured Sacred Scripture for every reference to the Blessed Sacrament - how it was prefigured in the Old Testament - lived out in the New Testament - developed into our 2,000-year-old Tradition. However, we must now do our 'homework' - by studying, reflecting on, and actively partaking in the Sacraments and other Rites - to reap their tremendous blessings.

This one oration summarizes almost every aspect of our Eucharistic theology. It references it as: a Memorial of Christ's suffering and death; as the True, Real Presence of His Sacred Body and Precious Blood; as the source of Salvation or the saving grace by which God redeems us from our sins; as the bond of Peace that can unite all those who receive it into one Body and one Spirit; and as the safest, surest road into the Kingdom where we will be forever joined to the Most Blessed Trinity: the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

As we prepare in this Advent time to welcome or re-welcome Christ into our minds and hearts, our homes and activities, make receiving and visiting Him in the Eucharist a priority. And don't confuse 'representations' of Christ to His 'Real Presence!'

In Christ

GUADALUPE
THE MIRACLE AND
THE MESSAGE

Before coming to Confession, use an 'Examen' [below] to examine your conscience. Begin with your state in life [i.e., married, single, parent, etc.] and approximate time since your last Confession; list all grave, serious, major [mortal] sins by number and kind; a general admission of sinfulness suffices for less serious [venial] sins: i.e., impatience, intolerance, stinginess, lack of charity, forgiveness, etc. After the Priest offers a penance, listen to the Prayer of Absolution; pray the Act of Contrition AFTER you leave.

AN ADVENT EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE

*As I prepare to meet my Master
at His Second Coming or my own Death,
I seek forgiveness for the failings in my private life:*

Have I abused or neglected the gift of my body,
a temple of the Holy Spirit?

Have I overindulged in food or alcohol;
have I misused medicines or drugs?

Have I engaged in sinful sexual practices?

Have I become complacent or self-satisfied?

*As I prepare to meet my Master
at His Second Coming or my own Death,
I seek forgiveness for the failings in my family life:*

Have I hurt or neglected my family or loved ones?

Have I withheld love from those closest to me?

Have I argued or bickered too easily?

Have I failed to say I was sorry or to offer forgiveness?

Have I withdrawn into my pursuits?

Have I failed to admit that I was wrong?

Do I dwell on my loved ones' faults or failings, overlooking their quirks and imperfections?

*As I prepare to meet my Master
at His Second Coming or my own Death,
I seek forgiveness for the failings
in the life of my community:*

Have I been a disruptive force because of my own ego?

Have I failed to be a peacemaker?

Have I intentionally excluded others?

Have I been greedy in the face of poverty or need?

*As I prepare to meet my Master
at His Second Coming or my own Death,
I seek forgiveness for the failings
with God and His Church:*

Have I failed to put my relationship with God first?

Have I failed to make time for regular private prayer
and for communal worship with others?

Have I made important choices in my life
without listening for God's voice?

Have I held back when God was calling me to be an instrument of grace to others?

Have I failed to offer back to God the gifts
He has entrusted to me?

Have I offered myself in service to God's Church?

A LITANY OF FORGIVENESS

Loving God, in your goodness, forgive my sins
against the unity of my family,
make me one in heart, one in spirit, with others.

Touch my heart and change my life,
help me grow always in your friendship.

Receive me as I come before you
with a humble and contrite heart,
with your pardon, give me also your peace.

Restore me, Lord, to your favor,
and give me joy in your Presence,
may my glory be to serve you with all my heart.

ONE OF THE NINE ACTS OF CONTRITION

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart.
In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good,
I have sinned against you
whom I should love above all things.
I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance,
to sin no more, and to avoid
whatever leads me to sin.

Our Savior Jesus Christ, suffered and died for us.
In his name, my God, have mercy. Amen.
