THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH

Today's Readings & Gospel

Reflections by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Reading I: Micah 5: 1-4a

The announcement of a new David coming out of Bethlehem to restore his kingship is indeed a great joy. The "Little Town" will suddenly become big in the history of Israel and of the world in general

Reading II: Hebrews 10: 5-10

The author quotes Psalm 40, which enunciates the fact that God prefers our obedience to ritual sacrifices. Christ's obedience is the perennial model.

The Gospel: Luke 1: 39-45

The physician-evangelist continues his narration of the dawning of the great fulfillment of God's promise. This visit of Mary is not to be taken literally, since it strains credulity that a 14 year old pregnant girl would undertake a 4 day journey alone over mountainous territory. Instead it brings Luke the opportunity to bring the two mothers-to-be together to praise God and to show how Elizabeth's son is the precursor of Mary's Son.

THE ORDER OF BLESSING A HOME AT CHRISTMAS-TIME.

While homes may be blessed at any time, Christmas and Easter are especially appropriate times, since that's when many families gather together. The use of holy water is optional but preferred; our holy water dispenser is in the narthex; bring a jar to fill. It is also customary to bless homes on the Epiphany, after which 20 + C + M + B + 22 is written in chalk over the main door. Between the current year [20 - 22] are 'plus signs' symbolizing the Cross and a Blessing. CMB are the initials of the Wise Men: Casper, Melchior, Balthasar and an abbreviation of the Latin phrase 'Christus mansionem benedicat' - 'May Christ bless this home.' Revive or make this a new Christmastime tradition.

Order for the Blessing of a Home at Christmas

All gather in one room and sing a suitable Christmas carol; then, the leader makes the Sign of the Cross as all do the same and reply, "Amen."

leader: "Let us praise God, who fills our hearts and homes with peace. Blessed be God for ever." all: "Blessed be God for ever."

leader: The Word became flesh and made his dwelling place among us. It is Christ who enlightens our hearts and homes with his love. It is Christ, risen from the dead, who is our source of hope, joy, and comfort. May all who enter this home find Christ's light and love.

reader: Brothers and sisters, listen to the words of the holy gospel according to Luke. Jesus came to Jericho and intended to pass through the town. Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man, was seeking to see who Jesus was; but he could not see him because of the crowd, for he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus, who was about to pass that way. When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." And he came down quickly and received him with joy. When they all saw this, they began to grumble, saying, "He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner." But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham."

leader: The Son of God made his home among us. With thanks and praise let us call upon him.

all: "Stay with us, Lord."

reader: Lord Jesus Christ, with Mary and Joseph you formed the Holy Family: remain in our home, that we may know you as our guest and honor you as our head; we pray: [r] reader: Lord Jesus Christ, through you every dwelling is a temple of holiness: build those who live in this house into the dwelling place of God in the Holy Spirit; we pray:..[r]

reader: Lord Jesus Christ, you became flesh of the Virgin Mary: grant that your presence may be known always in this home; we pray. [r]

reader: Lord Jesus Christ, the three kings presented their gifts to you in praise and adoration: grant that those living in this house may use their talents and abilities to your greater glory; we pray:..[r] leader: As children of God we confidently pray:

all: Our Father ...

Then, with hands joined, the leader prays:

Lord God of heaven and earth, you revealed your Only-Begotten Son to every nation by the guidance of a star. Bless this house and all who inhabit it. Fill them with the light of Christ, that their concern for others may reflect your love. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Each room and those present may be sprinkled with holy water after the leaders says:

Let this water call to mind our baptism in Christ, who by his death and resurrection has redeemed us

The leader concludes the rite by signing himself or herself with the Sign of the Cross and saying:

May Christ Jesus dwell with us, keep us from all harm, and make us one in mind and heart, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing ends with another Christmas carol.

A Blessed and Holy New Year to All!

In Christ,

Father Mark
