Curtis Martin

Curtis Martin is the founder and CEO of the Fellowship of Catholic University Students (FOCUS), one of the fastest-growing college outreach apostolates in the Catholic Church. Curtis Martin holds a master's degree in theology and is the author of the best-selling book, "Made for More." In 2004, Curtis and his wife, Michaelann, were awarded the Benemerenti Medal by Pope Saint John Paul II for their outstanding service to the Church. In 2011, Pope Benedict XVI appointed Curtis as a Consultor to the Pontifical Council of the New Evangelization.

Kevin Reilly

Former NFL Player; Philadelphia Eagles Radio Announcer

In 1976, shortly after beginning his NFL career, Kevin was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer when he played for the Philadelphia Eagles. This effectively ended his career in football. He underwent multiple surgeries that led to the removal of his left arm, shoulder and five ribs. Recovery from surgery was difficult and Reilly suffered significant depression but was able to overcome it. Kevin's story isn't merely about survival, it is a tale about Faith, resilience of the human spirit and rising from the ashes. Kevin's talk emphasizes his key to winning in life, the 4F's: Faith, Family, Friends, and Fortitude.

Maximilian Ford is from Manchester, England. He currently lives in the South of France where, in 2017, he co-founded Holy Spirit House, whose purpose is to gather, equip and send passionate believers who want to be used powerfully to release the manifest presence of Jesus in the world today. In 2015 he joined One Hope Project, a worship collective that has emerged out of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal in the UK and comprised of a breadth of artists and songwriters whose primary desire is to cultivate kingdom-culture through impactful music, fresh creativity and building relationship with others.
